DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the past seven days, ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 10th April 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

Dust and thunder storms have given light local showers during the week in the Central India plateau, the East Satpuras, the Deccan and the south of the Peninsula. During the latter part of the week rain was received in Kashmir, the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas and North-East India; and showers in the Indo-Gangetic Plain and Upper and Central Burma. Light rain has also fallen in Baluchistan and Tenasserim.

The dust and thunder storms were occasioned by ordinary hot weather actions producing an unstable condition of the atmosphere, indicated by large and irregular changes of pressure. The rain in Baluchistan, the West Himalayas, the Gangetic Plain and North-East India was caused by a depression which apparently advanced eastwards from Persia and gave light showers in Baluchistan on the 5th, 6th and 7th, the heaviest of which was .27 inch at Quetta on the 6th. The depression entered North-West India on the 5th and advancing eastwards was in the Gangetic Doab on the morning of the 7th. A secondary depression also formed in the Punjab which gave light to moderate general rain in Kashmir and the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas and broke up in the Simla and Mussooree Hills on the 8th. Nearly an inch of rain was reported on the 8th from Sonemarg, Chakrata, Mussooree and Dehra Dun. The primary depression continued to drift eastwards, giving a few light showers in the Gangetic Plain, the heaviest of which was .18 inch at Meerut, and on the morning of the 8th it was lying over Chota Nagpur. During the next twenty-four hours it gave light but fairly general rain in Assam and Bengal and showers extended into Upper and Central Burma. The depression had filled up by the morning of the 9th, but light showers continued during the day in Assam and Orissa.

The following statement shows that rain has fallen during the week in all divisions and sub-divisions except the sub-divisions of Bombay, Ahmedabad and Rajkot. The rain received, however, averaged less than a tenth of an inch in the divisions of the Indo-Gangetic Plain (West), the North-West Dry Area, the West Satpuras, the East Coast (South) and the sub-divisions of Darbhanga, Patna, Ranchi, Waltair, Jhansi, Jaipur, Bellary and Bijapur. The rainfall in the Simla sub-division averaged 1.08 inches and in Mysore .82 inch.

The rainfall of the period 29th November to 10th April was in excess in the East Coast (South) and South India and the sub-division of Dinajpur; and was practically normal in the Burma Coast, Burma (Dry) and the sub-divisions of Calicut, Ahmedabad and Bellary. The defect, as measured by the percentage variation, was diminished during the week in several of the remaining divisions and sub-divisions, the most important decreases being shown in the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas, Baluchistan and the sub-divisions of Cuttack, Jubbulpore, Indore and Hyderabad (Deccan).

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday, 5th April, 1902.

Madras.—Light showers of rain fell generally except in the Carnatic. The water-supplies are sufficient for irrigation except in parts of the Deccan, Salem and Madura districts. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting are in progress in parts. The standing crops are generally fair, but some withering has taken place in parts of the Kurnool district and the standing crops are suffering from drought in parts of the North Arcot district. Harvests continue with fair outturn. Pasture is scanty in the Deccan and parts of the Circars, Nellore, Coimbatore and the West Coast, but fodder is sufficient. The condition of cattle is good. Prices are rising in parts of the Carnatic and Central districts, but are stationary elsewhere.

Bombay.—Slight rain fell during the week in parts of Satara and the Karnatak and there was a very slight fall in parts of Ahmednagar, Sholapur, Kanara and Rajkot. The threshing of the autumn crops is in progress in parts of Nasik. The standing spring crops have been damaged by rats in parts of Nasik and are suffering from insufficient moisture in parts of Gujarat and Sholapur, but are generally in good condition elsewhere. The harvesting of spring crops has been completed in Kaira, Sholapur and Dharwar; is nearly over in Thana and Kolaha and is in progress in parts of Sind, Nasik, Kanara and Baroda. Threshing continues in parts of Nasik and Ahmednagar. The estimate of the outturn of the spring crops is good in Satara; fair in the other districts of the Deccan, Sind, the Konkan and the Karnatak and moderate to poor in Gujarat. The preparation of lands for next season is in progress in parts of the Konkan, Karnatak, Karachi, Broach, Surat, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Satara, Rajkot and Wadhwan. The cotton estimates are generally fair in Khandesh and the Karnatak and parts of Broach and Surat and moderate to poor elsewhere. Cotton-picking is almost completed in Broach and Belgaum and continues in parts of Bijapur, Dharwar, Rajkot and Baroda. The fodder-supply is sufficient except in parts of Karachi, Sukkur, Broach and the Karnatak. Agricultural stock is generally sufficient and is in good condition except in parts of Karachi, Nasik and Bijapur. The water-supply is becoming deficient in parts of Nasik, Sholapur, Belgaum, Dharwar and Baroda. Prices have fallen in six districts, have risen in five districts and are stationary elsewhere. The prices of the cheapest food-grain, in pounds per rupee at head-quarters are:—Ahmedabad, 32; Kaira, 28; Panch Mahals, 29; Sholapur, 37 and $\frac{1}{8}$; Ahmednagar, 29 and $\frac{2}{8}$; Nasik, 26 and $\frac{1}{8}$; Bijapur, 34 and $\frac{1}{8}$; Belgaum, 36.

•Daily average numbers on relief—BRITISH DISTRICTS—On relief works, 153,036; dependants, 10,884; total on works, 163,920. In poor-houses, 2,058; on village relief, 47,759; total on gratuitous relief, 49,817. The figures for Ahmedabad and Thar and Parkar are incomplete. NATIVE STATES—On relief works, 36,901; dependants, 279; total on works, 37,180. In poor-houses, 4,631; on village relief, 833; total on gratuitous relief, 5,464. The figures for Palanpur and Mahikantha are incomplete. Grand total, 256,381.

Bengal.—The rainfall during the week was scattered and for the most part scanty, but there was practically no rain in Bihar. Slight damage by hail is reported from the Sonthal Parganas and parts of Hooghly. Harvesting of spring crops is approaching completion and threshing is going on. Ploughing and sowing are in progress. Prospects are fair. Fodder and water are generally sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in eighteen districts, fallen in five and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces of Agra and Oudh.—With the exception of showers in the districts of Garhwal, Almora, Naini Tal and Budaun the weather has been clear. The harvesting and threshing of the spring crops are in active progress. The extraction of opium has been completed in places and weighments have begun. Prospects are favourable and prices are almost stationary.

Punjab.—Light rain has fallen in parts of Sialkot, Gujrat and Rawalpindi and slight showers are also reported from Hissar, Mianwali, Lahore and Amritsar. The price of wheat is rising in Karnal, Umballa, Lahore and Rawalpindi; falling in Rohtak, Delhi, Jullundur, Amritsar and Gujerat and remain unchanged elsewhere. The prices of other food staples are also falling. The price per rupee of the cheapest food-grains in the markets at Hissar, Rohtak and Gurgaon is as follows.—Hissar:—bijhar (mixed barley and gram) 21 seers; Rohtak, bijhar and barley 22 seers; Gurgaon, barley 18½ to 24 seers. The harvesting of spring crops continues in some districts and is about to commence in others. Sowings of sugarcane, cotton and extra spring crops are in progress in most districts. The condition of standing crops in irrigated areas is generally fair to average. It has been improved somewhat since the last rains. Crops on dry land are suffering from drought and their condition is poor. The outturn of spring crop is expected to be average or somewhat less. The yield has been injuriously affected by high winds in Karnal. The cattle are generally in fair condition. Fodder is said to be sufficient in all districts, except in Mianwali, Sialkot, Rawalpindi and parts of Karnal, Mooltan and Shahpur. The average number of persons in poor-houses, etc., in Hissar is as follows:—Poor-house inmates, 100; otherwise relieved, 2,348; total, 2,448.

North-West Frontier.—A fall of 4 cents of rain at Dera Ismail Khan has benefited standing spring crops, but rain is still wanted everywhere. The prospects of irrigated crops are average; unirrigated poor. The supply of water in hill streams has slightly increased. A hailstorm has damaged crops of a few villages in the Dera Ismail Khan district where the rape and mustard crops are being reaped. The stocks of food-grains are sufficient, but fodder is scarce in Dera Ismail Khan. Prices are slightly falling. Wheat is selling at 15½ and 15; gram, 17½ and 19; and maize, 26½ and 19 seers per rupee in Peshawar and Dera Ismail Khan, respectively, and bajra 16½ in Dera Ismail Khan.

Burma.—The cultivation of dry weather paddy is in progress and transplanting has been completed in the Ruby Mines district and parts of Shwebo. Reaping has commenced in Myingyan. Clearing on hill sides has begun in Thayetmyo and finished in Mandalay. The harvesting of peas and beans and other miscellaneous crops continues. The plucking of cotton is approaching completion in Thayetmyo. The crops generally promise well. The price of paddy has risen slightly in Mandalay and Shwebo and has fallen slightly in Amherst. Elsewhere it remains practically stationary.

Central Provinces.—Dust and thunder storms have been common, giving light showers almost throughout the provinces. The harvesting of spring crops is almost completed and threshing and winnowing continue. A hailstorm passed over a tract between Harda and Handia in the Hoshangabad District, but no report of its effects on crops has been received. Damage by rats to stocks and threshing floors continues in Nimar. The preparation of land for autumn sowings is in progress. Fodder and water are ample. Prices have fluctuated slightly. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are—wheat, 19, gram 22; rice, 17; and juar, 20. The highest prices are—wheat, 10; gram, 14; rice, 8; and juar, 14 seers per rupee.

Assam.—The weather is seasonable. Slight to moderate rain fell in all districts. More rain is wanted for tea in Cachar. Ploughing for, and sowing of, early and late broadcast rice and the pressing of sugarcane are in progress. Gathering of mustard is finished. The outturn of sugarcane and mustard is good in Cachar, Goalpara and Lakhimpur and fair in other districts. The plucking and manufacture of tea are in progress. Some tea bushes have been damaged by hail in Kamrup. Jute is being sown

ORGANISATION.

NATIVE ARMY.

No 293—With the approval of the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to sanction the formation of a battalion of Native Infantry to be designated "The 8th Gurkha Rifles," and formed of Gurkhas from Eastern Nepal of the same classes as the present 10th Gurkha Rifles, with which the 8th Gurkha Rifles will be linked.

2 The nucleus of the new battalion will consist primarily of selected volunteers from the 10th Gurkha Rifles and the Gurkha battalions of the Burma Military Police, the number from the police being limited to 100; but where specially recommended, men of other Gurkha regiments, if of suitable classes, will also be eligible for transfer thereto; all ranks so transferred will travel at the public expense. The battalion will be completed by Gurkha recruits drawn from Eastern Nepal.

3 The present 8th Madras Infantry will be mustered out at Rangoon, and the native officers, non-commissioned officers and privates now serving therein will be transferred to other regiments or to the reserve thereof, or be pensioned or discharged in the manner hereinafter stated.

4. The battalion now to be formed in place of the 8th Madras Infantry will be raised at Thayetmyo and will ordinarily be stationed in Burma, though recruited for general service.

5. The organisation, establishment and strength of the reconstituted battalion will be the same in all ranks, British and Native, including followers, as that of the 10th Gurkha Rifles.

6 The conditions of service for all ranks will be identical with those governing service in the present 10th Gurkha Rifles.

7 Former service in the army and in the military police will count towards the period of service required for the grant of good-conduct pay and pension.

8. The following concessions in respect to families will be authorised for transfers to the reconstituted battalion:

- (a) Native officers will be permitted to take their families to Burma on payment of one-third passage money.
- (b) 20 per cent. of havildars, 20 per cent. of naicks and 5 per cent. of drummers, buglers and sepoy will be allowed free passages and free accommodation for their families.

N.B.—The term "families" includes wives and children only.

9 Soldiers serving in the reconstituted battalion will be liable to transfer to the 10th Gurkha Rifles or any other Gurkha battalion which may hereafter be linked to the group, as the exigencies of the service may require.

10. The native officers non-commissioned officers and men now serving in the 8th Madras Infantry will cease to be borne on the rolls thereof from the date of being actually struck off, and will be disposed of as follows:

- (a) A specially selected officer will be appointed to assist the Officer Commanding the District in making a careful selection of all ranks now serving in the regiment. All individuals whose retention in the service is from any cause considered undesirable will be noted for discharge. Those passed as fit for further service will be allowed to volunteer for any of the Madras infantry regiments noted in the margin which enlist their class or for the reserves of the same, provided that the classes to which they belong are enlisted or represented therein.

This concession is subject to the proviso that the fixed establishment of the regiments to which transfers are allowed or the reserves of the same is not exceeded thereby.

- (b) Men not volunteering for the regiments named, or for the reserve, men who volunteer but for whom no vacancies can be found, and men rejected as unsuitable for retention in the service under (a) will be discharged on the terms noted in paragraph 11.

(c) Public followers of classes unsuitable for retention in the regiment, after its reconstitution, will be transferred to other regiments, if possible. If not, they will be discharged on the terms specified in paragraph 11 (f).

11. Terms of discharge :

To native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of 25 years' service and upwards.	To native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of over 15 and less than 25 years' service.	To native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of more than 10 and less than 15 years' service.	To native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of more than 5 and less than 10 years' service.	To native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of less than 5 years' service. More or less general rain was given by these storms on every day of the week except the 12th, and some moderate to heavy falls were reported on the 14th, 15th and 16th. On the 15th Narayanganj received $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches of rain and on the 16th Barisal received $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches, while amounts ranging from one to two inches were reported from several stations. The rain received in other parts of the country was light and local in character. Showers of this nature were received in Baluchistan, Kashmir, the Punjab, Rajputana, the east of the Central Provinces, Orissa, the Deccan, the south of the Peninsula and Burma. The only falls reported from these areas exceeding an inch in amount were 1'08 inches at Balasore on the 11th and again on the 15th and 1'67 inches at Bangalore on the 12th.

Another of the series of feeble depressions which have lately been advancing eastwards through Persia entered North-West India on the 12th. It marched eastwards through the South Punjab into the Gangetic Plain on the 13th where it remained till the 15th, when it filled up and disappeared. In its passage through North-West India it gave a few light and unimportant showers in Kashmir, the North-West Himalayas and the Punjab, and as it advanced eastwards into the northern districts of the Gangetic Plain, it determined dry westerly winds in Central India and the south of the Gangetic Plain, which extended into West Bengal, and meeting the humid winds from the Bay, which were blowing strongly in Lower and East Bengal, caused large differences of humidity at neighbouring stations. Unstable conditions were hence established, which resulted in the numerous series of thunderstorms and nor'-westers referred to above. Another feeble depression entered North-West India on the 16th, which gave very light showers in Baluchistan on the 16th and in parts of the Punjab and Rajputana on the 17th.

The following table shows that the rainfall of the week was in excess of the normal over the greater part of North-East India, the East Coast (North), the adjacent sub-division of Raipur and in the sub-divisions of Bellary and Mysore. The amount of rain received during the week averaged 5'01 inches in the sub-division of Narayanganj, 3'41 inches in the sub-division of Burdwan and 3'26 inches in the Brahmaputra Valley.

The last five columns of the table give the data for the rainfall of the period 29th November to 17th April. They show that the rainfall received during this period was in excess in South India, the East Coast (South) and the sub-divisions of Dinajpur and Burdwan; practically normal in the Burma Coast, the Delta of Bengal, the Brahmaputra Valley and the sub-divisions of Cuttack, Calicut, Ahmedabad and Bellary; and in more or less defect in the remaining divisions and sub-divisions. The largest percentages of defect occur in North-West India and in the sub-divisions of Waltair, Raipur and Bombay.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the past seven days, ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 17th April 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The chief feature in the meteorology of the past week was the occurrence of numerous thunderstorms and nor'-westers in Bengal. More or less general rain was given by these storms on every day of the week except the 12th, and some moderate to heavy falls were reported on the 14th, 15th and 16th. On the 15th Narayanganj received $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches of rain and on the 16th Barisal received $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches, while amounts ranging from one to two inches were reported from several stations. The rain received in other parts of the country was light and local in character. Showers of this nature were received in Baluchistan, Kashmir, the Punjab, Rajputana, the east of the Central Provinces, Orissa, the Deccan, the south of the Peninsula and Burma. The only falls reported from these areas exceeding an inch in amount were 1'08 inches at Balasore on the 11th and again on the 15th and 1'67 inches at Bangalore on the 12th.

Another of the series of feeble depressions which have lately been advancing eastwards through Persia entered North-West India on the 12th. It marched eastwards through the South Punjab into the Gangetic Plain on the 13th where it remained till the 15th, when it filled up and disappeared. In its passage through North-West India it gave a few light and unimportant showers in Kashmir, the North-West Himalayas and the Punjab, and as it advanced eastwards into the northern districts of the Gangetic Plain, it determined dry westerly winds in Central India and the south of the Gangetic Plain, which extended into West Bengal, and meeting the humid winds from the Bay, which were blowing strongly in Lower and East Bengal, caused large differences of humidity at neighbouring stations. Unstable conditions were hence established, which resulted in the numerous series of thunderstorms and nor'-westers referred to above. Another feeble depression entered North-West India on the 16th, which gave very light showers in Baluchistan on the 16th and in parts of the Punjab and Rajputana on the 17th.

The following table shows that the rainfall of the week was in excess of the normal over the greater part of North-East India, the East Coast (North), the adjacent sub-division of Raipur and in the sub-divisions of Bellary and Mysore. The amount of rain received during the week averaged 5'01 inches in the sub-division of Narayanganj, 3'41 inches in the sub-division of Burdwan and 3'26 inches in the Brahmaputra Valley.

The last five columns of the table give the data for the rainfall of the period 29th November to 17th April. They show that the rainfall received during this period was in excess in South India, the East Coast (South) and the sub-divisions of Dinajpur and Burdwan; practically normal in the Burma Coast, the Delta of Bengal, the Brahmaputra Valley and the sub-divisions of Cuttack, Calicut, Ahmedabad and Bellary; and in more or less defect in the remaining divisions and sub-divisions. The largest percentages of defect occur in North-West India and in the sub-divisions of Waltair, Raipur and Bombay.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday, 12th April, 1902.

Madras.—There was light to fair rain generally, except in the Carnatic. The water-supplies are sufficient for irrigation, except in parts of the Deccan, Salem and Madura. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting are in progress in parts. The standing crops are generally fair, but some are suffering from drought in parts of the Cuddapah and North Arcot districts. Small harvests continue with moderate yield. Pasture is scanty in the Deccan and parts of the Circars, Nellore, Coimbatore and the West Coast, but fodder is sufficient. The condition of cattle is good. Prices remain generally stationary.

Bombay.—Slight rain fell during the week in parts of Dharwar and there was a very slight fall in parts of Hyderabad, the Upper Sind Frontier, Thar and Parkar, Sholapur, Satara, Bijapur, Belgaum and Kanara. The harvesting of autumn crops continues in parts of Khandesh and threshing in parts of Nasik. The standing spring crops have been damaged by rats in parts of Rajkot and by locusts in parts of Belgaum and are suffering from insufficient moisture in parts of Gujarat, but are generally in good condition elsewhere. The harvesting of the spring crops is completed in Karachi, Kaira, Sholapur and Dharwar; is nearly over in Thana and Kolaba and is in progress in parts of Sind, Broach, Ratnagiri, Khandesh, Nasik, Kanara and Baroda. Threshing is nearly completed in Ahmednagar and continues in parts of Sukkur, Hyderabad, the Upper Sind Frontier, Nasik and Rajkot. The estimate of the outturn of the spring crops is good in Satara; fair in other districts of the Deccan, Sind and the Konkan and Karnatak and moderate to poor in Gujarat. The preparation of land for next season is in progress in parts of the Konkan, Karnatak, Broach, Surat, Khandesh, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Satara, Rajkot and Wadhwan. Cotton estimates are generally fair in Khandesh and the Karnatak and parts of Broach and Surat and moderate to poor elsewhere. Cotton-picking is almost completed in Dharwar and continues in parts of Bijapur and Baroda. The fodder-supply is sufficient except in parts of Karachi, Sukkur, Broach and the Karnatak. Agricultural stock is generally sufficient and is in good condition, except in parts of Karachi, Nasik and Bijapur. The water-supply is becoming deficient in parts of Nasik, Sholapur, Dharwar and Baroda. Prices have fallen in three districts, have risen in one district and are stationary elsewhere. The prices of the cheapest food-grain in pounds per rupee at head-quarters are:—Ahmedabad, 32; Kaira, 28; Panch Mahals, 29; Sholapur, 37 and $\frac{3}{4}$; Ahmednagar, 29 and $\frac{3}{4}$; Bijapur, 34.

Daily average numbers on relief.—BRITISH DISTRICTS.—On relief works, 156,486; dependants, 12,940; total on works, 169,426. In poor-houses, 2,089; on village relief, 45,033; total on gratuitous relief, 48,122. The figures for Ahmedabad, Belgaum and Thar and Parkar are incomplete. NATIVE STATES.—On relief works, 40,902; dependants, 285; total on works, 41,187. In poor-houses, 4,363; on village relief, 840; total on gratuitous relief, 5,203. The figures for Palanpur, Rewakantha and Mahikantha are incomplete. Grand total, 263,938.

Bengal.—Rain fell during the week in the greater part of the province and the fall was moderately heavy at places, but it was scanty in Bihar where several districts received no rain at all. The rain was generally beneficial to cultivation and the standing crops, but some damage to mahua and mango by the storms is reported from the Santhal Parganas. The harvesting of spring crops is almost finished and threshing continues. Ploughing and sowing are going on. Prospects are fair. Water is sufficient except in Saran and in the Araria sub-division of the Purnea district. Fodder is said to be dear at Ranchi and insufficient at Nalchiti thana in the Bakargunge district. Elsewhere it is sufficient. The price of rice has risen in ten districts; fallen in twelve and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces of Agra and Oudh.—Light rain has fallen in twenty-one districts, the falls in a few places averaging over an inch. Prospects have improved in the northern districts. Harvesting, threshing and winnowing continue. Extra crops are being irrigated and opium weighments are in progress. Fodder is generally sufficient, but scarce in parts of Almora. Prices are practically stationary.

Punjab.—More or less rain has fallen in all districts, except those of the Lahore and Multan divisions. The prices of food-grains, especially of wheat and grain, have generally fallen. A slight rise in the price of food-grains occurred in Amritsar and of grain in Shahpur. The price per rupee of the cheapest food-grain in the markets at Hissar, Rohtak and Gurgaon is as follows:—Hissar, bijhar (mixed barley and grain) 21 seers; Rohtak, grain 21 seers; Gurgaon, barley 18 to 24 seers. The harvesting of spring crops continues. Sowings of extra spring crops still continue in some districts. Sugarcane and cotton are also being sown. The condition of the standing irrigated crops is generally fair. The outturn of crops harvested is said to be average or below average. The outturn of irrigated crops is said to be above average in Hissar. The recent rain has benefited the standing crops and will also help to a certain extent the extra spring and autumn sowings. Crops on dry land have suffered from drought. More rain is urgently wanted. Hail fell in parts of Lahore, but did no damage. Cattle are generally in fair condition. Fodder is said to be sufficient in all districts, except Rawalpindi and parts of Karnal, Mooltan and Shahpur. The average number of persons in poor-houses, etc., in Hissar is as follows:—Poor-house inmates, 94; otherwise relieved, 2,334; total, 2,428.

North-West Frontier Province—Twenty cents of rain fell at Tank. Rain is still wanted everywhere. High winds have somewhat damaged crops in Dera Ismail Khan. Rape and mustard are being harvested in Dera Ismail Khan. The outturn is poor. Wheat and barley are being reaped in Dera Ismail Khan. The prospects of irrigated crops are average; the prospects of unirrigated crops are bad in Peshawar. Stocks of food-grains are sufficient, but fodder is scarce in Dera Ismail Khan. Prices are steady.

Burma.—LOWER BURMA.—The reaping of dry weather paddy has commenced in Tavoy. UPPER BURMA.—Slight rain fell in several districts and in the Shan States. The cultivation of dry weather paddy is in progress. The gathering of miscellaneous crops is progressing in Sagaing, Lower Chindwin, Kyaukse, Meiktila and is nearly completed in parts of Myingyan. Dry weather paddy is ripening in the Yeü township of the Shwebo district and has been slightly attacked by insects in Bhamo. The price of paddy has risen slightly in Kyaukse, but elsewhere remains stationary.

Central Provinces.—The weather has been generally cloudy and unsettled with slight rain in some of the northern districts, the Nagpur country and Chhatisgarh. The harvesting of spring crops is almost completed. Threshing and winnowing continue. The estimated outturn in Damoh is:—wheat, 90, gram and linseed, 82½ per cent. of the normal. Damage by rats to stocks on threshing floors continues in Nimar. The preparation of land for autumn sowings is in progress. Fodder and water are ample. Forest concessions in the Khurai tahsil of the Saugor district are being freely taken advantage of. The price of gram shows a slight tendency to rise. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are:—wheat, 19; gram, 24; rice, 17 and juar 22½. The highest prices are:—wheat, 9½; gram, 14; rice, 8 and juar, 13½.

Assam.—Moderate to heavy rain has fallen in all districts. Ploughing for, and sowing of, early and late broadcast rice and the pressing of sugarcane are in progress. The outturn of sugarcane is good in Cachar and Lakhimpur and fair in other districts. The plucking and manufacture of tea are in progress. Prospects are fair. Jute is being sown in Goalpara and the Garo Hills. The harvesting of low-land rice continues in Sylhet. Fodder is insufficient in parts of Sylhet. Prices:—Common rice, Sylhet, 15½; Silchar, 15; Gauhati, 13; Tezpur, 12½; Dhubri, Nowgong, Sibsagar and Dibrugarh, 11 seers per rupee.

Mysore.—The rainfall was 2 inches and 2 cents in the Civil and Military Station, but there was good rain generally throughout the province. The standing crops are in good condition generally throughout the province. Paddy and ragi are being harvested in parts, and in other parts paddy is being sown. The prospects of the season are good generally throughout. Prices have slightly fallen in Tumkur and in parts of Kadur, and have slightly risen in other places. Simla; the 22nd April, 1902.

The following Resolution and Proclamation regarding the result of an enquiry into the circumstances attending the death of the Rao Raja Khuman Singh of Panna are published for general information :

RESOLUTION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

No. 1560-I. B., dated the 21st April, 1902.

READ the following papers :

1. Letter from the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General in Central India, No. A, dated the 30th January, 1902, forwarding the report (appended hereto) and the proceedings of the Commissioners, who were appointed by the Resolution of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 4081-I. B., dated the 6th November, 1901, to enquire into certain charges relating to the death of the Rao Raja Khuman Singh, uncle of His Highness the Maharaja Madho Singh of Panna.

2. Letter from the Counsel for His Highness Maharaja Madho Singh, dated the 26th February, 1902, submitting a memorial on behalf of His Highness.

The Rao Raja Khuman Singh, uncle of His Highness the Maharaja Madho Singh of Panna, died on or about the 25th June, 1901, in circumstances which pointed to his death having been caused by poison. It came to the knowledge of the Government of India that there were grounds for suspecting that the Rao Raja had been poisoned by persons who were instigated thereto by the Maharaja. Accordingly in September, 1901, the Governor General in Council decided to suspend the Maharaja from power and himself to assume the administration of the Panna State for the purpose of appointing a Commission to try the persons alleged to have murdered the Rao Raja, and also of affording to the Maharaja an opportunity of clearing himself from the imputation that he had participated in that offence.

2. The Commissioners, after prolonged and exhaustive enquiry, have found that the Rao Raja died from the effects of poison, and they have convicted an official of the Panna State, named Achche Lal, of having conspired to murder the Rao Raja, and have sentenced him to death. The Commissioners have found it impossible to explain the facts upon any hypothesis other than that the Maharaja was a party to this conspiracy.

3. The Governor General in Council, after carefully considering the proceedings of the Commissioners and the memorial submitted by the Counsel for the Maharaja on behalf of His Highness, has arrived at the conclusion that the finding of the Commissioners is correct and that the guilt of the Maharaja is established.

4. The Governor General in Council has accordingly decided that His Highness the Maharaja Madho Singh shall be deposed from the Chiefship of the Panna State. The sentence of death passed by the Commissioners on the said Achche Lal has also been confirmed by the Governor General in Council.

By Order of the Viceroy and Governor General of India in Council,

H. S. BARNES,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Appendix.

Report of the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the circumstances attending the death of Rao Raja Khuman Singh, uncle of His Highness the Maharaja of Panna.

We have been appointed Commissioners for the purpose of reporting, to the best of our judgment and belief, how far the imputation is true that His Highness Maharaja Madho Singh, of Panna, instigated certain persons to poison his uncle, Rao Raja Khuman Singh, on or about June 24, 1901.

In a judgment delivered this day in the case of four persons, Kamal Kuar alias Haidari Jan, Achche Lal, Latchmi Parshad, and Rasul Muhammad charged with engaging in a conspiracy to poison the Rao Raja, we have pronounced certain findings. This report and our judgment in the trial should be read together.

The length of our enquiry and the bulk of the record are due partly to the circumstance that the acts of the Maharaja relied upon by Counsel for the prosecution extend over a period of about three weeks, and partly to the fact that the witnesses were cross-examined on a number of incidents which were subsequently admitted.

We have found in our judgment that the Rao Raja died on June 25th, 1901, of arsenic administered to him by Shambhu, a cook in the employment of the Maharaja; that the Maharaja had a very strong motive for getting rid of his uncle; that on June 11th the Maharaja invited his uncle to stay at the Raj Mandir, where he died; that Achche Lal, his confidential servant, procured strychnia on or about June 20th; that Latchmi Parshad, the head of the Maharaja's kitchen, sent Shambhu to cook for the Rao Raja at the Raj Mandir; that on June 24th the Maharaja sent the same man Achche Lal to fetch the poisoned meat from the Raj Mandir; that on June 24th, the Maharaja was informed that the case had been diagnosed as one of arsenical poisoning and told the State Doctor, Srinath, to give out that it was a case of sun-stroke; that on June 25th, the Maharaja prevented the widows of the Rao Raja from taking the body to Nowgong from fear of the consequences of an examination of the body; that on June 26th by threats and pressure he procured letters and a "razinama" from the widows intended to show that the Rao Raja died a natural death and that his body had not been burnt till after a proper enquiry had been made, although in fact no enquiry was held; that the Maharaja knew on June 21st that Shambhu was suspected and had disappeared, but had no real search made for him; that he was repeatedly urged to arrest Achche Lal and Latchmi Parshad and refused to do so; that with his knowledge and approval pressure was brought to bear upon the State Doctor, Srinath, on June 27th and July 7th and 11th to make him report that the Rao Raja died of sun-stroke; and that he had a false State record prepared to conceal the part which he had taken in the matter.

Can these facts be accounted for on any hypothesis save that the imputation is true?

The Maharaja, who disputed much of what we find to be established, says that what he did was due not to guilt, but to fear of scandal and trouble with the Political Authorities. He says that although he was urged by the Political Agent to tell the truth, he did not find courage to do so until he had seen his Counsel and our sittings had begun.

We are satisfied that even now he has not told the truth about many of the incidents which took place. Moreover, we find no evidence of fear in his dealings with the Political Agent. He did not hesitate to make use of the Agency in his efforts to obtain recognition of Kamal Kuar as his Maharani. Captain Beville in May had helped him to prepare a paper for submission to higher authority by which the Maharaja hoped to exculpate himself from suspicion in connection with Harnam Singh's case.

We cannot believe that what the Maharaja did on and after June 24th was due only to fear of scandal and trouble with the Political Authorities.

Mr. Colvin has urged upon us that the fact that the Maharaja returned to Panna on the day on which the Rao Raja was poisoned is a very strong indication of his innocence. The Maharaja used this argument as early as July 14th (Exhibit A 18). Mr. Wallach urged with equal insistence that the presence of the Maharaja in Panna was necessary for the protection of the conspirators. There can be little doubt that if the Maharaja had not been in Panna on June 24th and 25th, Shambhu would have been arrested and the body of the Rao Raja conveyed to Nowgong.

Mr. Colvin urged also very strongly that the Maharaja made no effort to obtain the meat and vomit on June 26th, although he knew that the Rao Ranis had them in their possession at the Rani Bagh. As we have said in our judgment, we do not believe the Maharaja's statement that he did not care whether the Rao Ranis had the meat and vomit or not. He may have been satisfied with Srinath's statement that the Rao Ranis could not possibly have them; he may have thought that the Ranis would be more difficult to persuade if they were aware that he knew of the valuable evidence which they had by them; or he may have been content with the documents which he procured on that day, and paused before attempting to obtain the meat and vomit which he could hardly hope to obtain except by force. Meanwhile, on the 27th, it became known that the Agency Surgeon was on his way to Panna, and the use of force was out of the question. The argument for the Maharaja on this point does not convince us. The Maharaja's other conduct on that day does not establish innocence, but strongly suggests guilt.

A third point strongly urged for the Maharaja is that his instructions to his Vakil on July 17th (Appendix 25) are inconsistent with guilt. We do not follow this contention. The first of the instructions is "Poison should not be proved," and three others evidently refer to the case under enquiry, although up to that time no definite charge had been made against the Maharaja.

No explanation of the Maharaja's conduct other than that which we have already mentioned was suggested to us by his Counsel.

It occurred to us that possibly the Maharaja, being himself innocent, had suspected Kamal Kuar of complicity in the murder, and that his conduct was due to a desire to screen her. We have carefully considered this.

In our opinion the proved facts show that Achche Lal and Shambhu knew that they had the authority of the Maharaja at their back, and that they would be protected by him, as in fact they were. Moreover, if the Maharaja was not already aware of the facts, the slightest enquiry would have shewn him that Achche Lal had procured the strychnia possibly before but certainly not later than June 20th, and that Latchmi Parshad had arranged to send Shambhu to the Raj Mandir on the 20th. The Maharaja must have known that Kamal Kuar did not return to Panna till 11 p.m. on the 19th and then only at his express wish. He could not have supposed that all the necessary plans for the murder were matured in one night, and action taken on the very next day.

We think that we may safely disregard the hypothesis that the Maharaja's conduct was due to a desire to shield Kamal Kuar. Mr. Colvin declined to discuss this theory. He said that the Maharaja had no ground for suspecting Kamal Kuar, and the Maharaja himself says that no one ever suggested to him that Kamal Kuar might be implicated and therefore he should prevent the Rao Ranis from taking the body to Nowgong.

The expelled favourite Fida Ali was hinted at once, but there is no evidence that this man was in the conspiracy, or that the Maharaja suspected that he was. We feel that we may safely leave him out of consideration.

So far as we know, there is no other person whom the Maharaja had any ground for suspecting or any motive for screening. We cannot imagine any person, save Kamal Kuar or himself, for whom he would have done even what he admits having done, still less what we have found that he did.

We find it impossible to explain the facts upon any hypothesis other than that the Maharaja was a member of the conspiracy to murder the Rao Raja.

We regret therefore to have to report that to the best of our judgment and belief the imputation against him is true.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 22nd April, 1902.

No. 1582½-I B.—The following Resolution and Proclamation regarding the result of an enquiry into the circumstances attending the death of the Rao Raja Khuman Singh of Panna are published for general information:

RESOLUTION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

No. 1560-I. B., dated the 21st April, 1902.

Read the following papers:

1. Letter from the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General in Central India, No. A, dated the 30th January, 1902, forwarding the report (appended hereto) and the proceedings of the Commissioners, who were appointed by the Resolution of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 4081-I. B., dated the 6th November, 1901, to enquire into certain charges relating to the death of the Rao Raja Khuman Singh, uncle of His Highness the Maharaja Madho Singh of Panna.

2. Letter from the Counsel for His Highness Maharaja Madho Singh, dated the 26th February, 1902, submitting a memorial on behalf of His Highness.

The Rao Raja Khuman Singh, uncle of His Highness the Maharaja Madho Singh of Panna, died on or about the 25th June, 1901, in circumstances which pointed to his death having been caused by poison. It came to the knowledge of the Government of India that there were grounds for suspecting that the Rao Raja had been poisoned by persons who were instigated thereto by the Maharaja. Accordingly in September, 1901, the Governor General in Council decided to suspend the Maharaja from power and himself to assume the administration of the Panna State for the purpose of appointing a Commission to try the persons alleged to have murdered the Rao Raja, and also of affording to the Maharaja an opportunity of clearing himself from the imputation that he had participated in that offence.

2. The Commissioners, after prolonged and exhaustive enquiry, have found that the Rao Raja died from the effects of poison, and they have convicted an official of the Panna State, named Achche Lal, of having conspired to murder the Rao Raja, and have sentenced him to death. The Commissioners have found it impossible to explain the facts upon any hypothesis other than that the Maharaja was a party to this conspiracy.

3. The Governor General in Council, after carefully considering the proceedings of the Commissioners and the memorial submitted by the Counsel for the Maharaja on behalf of His Highness, has arrived at the conclusion that the finding of the Commissioners is correct and that the guilt of the Maharaja is established.

4. The Governor General in Council has accordingly decided that His Highness the Maharaja Madho Singh shall be deposed from the Chiefship of the Panna State. The sentence of death passed by the Commissioners on the said Achche Lal has also been confirmed by the Governor General in Council.

By Order of the Viceroy and Governor General of India in Council,

H. S. BARNES,

Secretary to the Government of India.

Appendix.

Report of the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the circumstances attending the death of Rao Raja Khuman Singh, uncle of His Highness the Maharaja of Panna.

We have been appointed Commissioners for the purpose of reporting, to the best of our judgment and belief, how far the imputation is true that His Highness Maharaja Madho Singh of Panna, instigated certain persons to poison his uncle, Rao Raja Khuman Singh, on or about June 24, 1901.

In a judgment delivered this day in the case of four persons, Kamal Kuer alias Haidari Jan, Achche Lal, Latchmi Parshad, and Rasul Muhammad charged with engaging in a conspiracy to poison the Rao Raja, we have pronounced certain findings. This report and our judgment in the trial should be read together.

The length of our enquiry and the bulk of the record are due partly to the circumstance that the acts of the Maharaja relied upon by Counsel for the prosecution extend over a period of about three weeks, and partly to the fact that the witnesses were cross-examined on a number of incidents which were subsequently admitted.

We have found in our judgment that the Rao Raja died on June 25th, 1901, of arsenic administered to him by Shambhu, a cook in the employment of the Maharaja; that the Maharaja had a very strong motive for getting rid of his uncle; that on June 11th the Maharaja invited his uncle to stay at the Raj Mandir, where he died; that Achche Lal, his confidential servant, procured strychnia on or about June 20th; that Latchmi Parshad, the head of the Maharaja's kitchen, sent Shambhu to cook for the Rao Raja at the Raj Mandir; that on June 24th the Maharaja sent the same man Achche Lal to fetch the poisoned meat from the Raj Mandir; that on June 24th, the Maharaja was informed that the case had been diagnosed as one of arsenical poisoning and told the State Doctor, Srinath, to give out that it was a case of sunstroke; that on June 25th, the Maharaja prevented the widows of the Rao Raja from taking the body to Nowgong from fear of the consequences of an examination of the body; that on June 26th by threats and pressure he procured letters and a "razinama" from the widows intended to show that the Rao Raja died a natural death and that his body had not been burnt till after a proper enquiry had been made, although in fact no enquiry was held; that the Maharaja knew on June 24th that Shambhu was suspected and had disappeared, but had no real search made for him; that he was repeatedly urged to arrest Achche Lal and Latchmi Parshad and refused to do so; that with his knowledge and approval pressure was brought to bear upon the State Doctor, Srinath, on June 27th and July 7th and 11th to make him report that the Rao Raja died of sunstroke; and that he had a false State record prepared to conceal the part which he had taken in the matter.

Can these facts be accounted for on any hypothesis save that the imputation is true ?

The Maharaja, who disputed much of what we find to be established, says that what he did was due not to guilt, but to fear of scandal and trouble with the Political Authorities. He says that although he was urged by the Political Agent to tell the truth, he did not find courage to do so until he had seen his Counsel and our sittings had begun.

We are satisfied that even now he has not told the truth about many of the incidents which took place. Moreover, we find no evidence of fear in his dealings with the Political Agent. He did not hesitate to make use of the Agency in his efforts to obtain recognition of Kamal Kuar as his Maharani. Captain Reville in May had helped him to prepare a paper for submission to higher authority by which the Maharaja hoped to exculpate himself from suspicion in connection with Harnam Singh's case.

We cannot believe that what the Maharaja did on and after June 24th was due only to fear of scandal and trouble with the Political Authorities.

Mr. Colvin has urged upon us that the fact that the Maharaja returned to Panna on the day on which the Rao Raja was poisoned is a very strong indication of his innocence. The Maharaja used this argument as early as July 14th (Exhibit A 18). Mr. Wallach urged with equal insistence that the presence of the Maharaja in Panna was necessary for the protection of the conspirators. There can be little doubt that if the Maharaja had not been in Panna on June 24th and 25th, Shambhu would have been arrested and the body of the Rao Raja conveyed to Nowgong.

Mr. Colvin urged also very strongly that the Maharaja made no effort to obtain the meat and vomit on June 26th, although he knew that the Rao Ranis had them in their possession at the Rani Bagh. As we have said in our judgment, we do not believe the Maharaja's statement that he did not care whether the Rao Ranis had the meat and vomit or not. He may have been satisfied with Srinath's statement that the Rao Ranis could not possibly have them; he may have thought that the Ranis would be more difficult to persuade if they were aware that he knew of the valuable evidence which they had by them; or he may have been content with the documents which he procured on that day, and paused before attempting to obtain the meat and vomit which he could hardly hope to obtain except by force. Meanwhile, on the 27th, it became known that the Agency Surgeon was on his way to Panna, and the use of force was out of the question. The argument for the Maharaja on this point does not convince us. The Maharaja's other conduct on that day does not establish innocence, but strongly suggests guilt.

A third point strongly urged for the Maharaja is that his instructions to his Vakil on July 17th (Appendix 25) are inconsistent with guilt. We do not follow this contention. The first of the instructions is "Poison should not be proved," and three others evidently refer to the case under enquiry, although up to that time no definite charge had been made against the Maharaja.

No explanation of the Maharaja's conduct other than that which we have already mentioned was suggested to us by his Counsel.

It occurred to us that possibly the Maharaja, being himself innocent, had suspected Kamal Kuar of complicity in the murder, and that his conduct was due to a desire to screen her. We have carefully considered this.

In our opinion the proved facts show that Achche Lal and Shambhu knew that they had the authority of the Maharaja at their back, and that they would be protected by him, as in fact they were. Moreover, if the Maharaja was not already aware of the facts, the slightest enquiry would have shown him that Achche Lal had procured the strychnia possibly before but certainly not later than June 20th, and that Latchmi Parshad had arranged to send Shambhu to the Raj Mandir on the 20th. The Maharaja must have known that Kamal Kuar did not return to Panna till 11 P.M. on the 19th and then only at his express wish. He could not have supposed that all the necessary plans for the murder were matured in one night, and action taken on the very next day.

We think that we may safely disregard the hypothesis that the Maharaja's conduct was due to a desire to shield Kamal Kuar. Mr. Colvin declined to discuss this theory. He said that the Maharaja had no ground for suspecting Kamal Kuar, and the Maharaja himself says that no one ever suggested to him that Kamal Kuar might be implicated and therefore he should prevent the Rao Ranis from taking the body to Nowgong.

The expelled favourite Fida Ali was hinted at once, but there is no evidence that this man was in the conspiracy, or that the Maharaja suspected that he was. We feel that we may safely leave him out of consideration.

So far as we know, there is no other person whom the Maharaja had any ground for suspecting or any motive for screening. We cannot imagine any person, save Kamal Kuar or himself, for whom he would have done even what he admits having done, still less what we have found that he did.

We find it impossible to explain the facts upon any hypothesis other than that the Maharaja was a member of the conspiracy to murder the Rao Raja.

We regret therefore to have to report that to the best of our judgment and belief of the imputation against him is true.

E. CHAMIER.

A. L. P. TUCKER.

The 25th January 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the past seven days, ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 24th April 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

Meteorological conditions have continued more or less disturbed during the past week over the whole of the Indian and Persian Areas, shown partly by large and irregular changes in pressure and temperature and occasional local showers in Persia and the Upper India Hills, and also by frequent disturbances and a series of thunderstorms and nor'-westers, occasionally accompanied with hail, in North-East India. More or less general rain has occurred on every day of the week in Assam and Bengal, and moderate to heavy falls have been recorded, the heaviest reported being—Tezpur 2·86 inches and Calcutta 4·41 inches on the 18th, Narayanganj 4·75 inches on the 19th; Silchar 2 inches on the 20th, Suchar 2·82 inches and Narayanganj 2·12 inches on the 22nd, and Narayanganj 2·95 inches on the 24th. Light to moderate snow and rain have been received in Kashmir,—Sonemarg on the 20th and 21st reporting a total fall equivalent to 2·24 inches of rain, and light local showers have fallen in the West Himalayas. The only rain of any importance in the latter area occurred during the twenty-four hours ending on the 24th when light showers were general in the West Himalayas due to an extension of easterly winds up the Gangetic Plain. Local showers have fallen during the week in Burma and the east of the Peninsula.

As will be seen from the following table the rainfall of the week was normal or in slight excess in the West Himalayas, Sub-Himalayas, the Burma Coast and the Burma Wet Area. It was in excess in most divisions of North-East India and in Orissa. The excess was very large in the Narayanganj sub-division where it amounted to 5·23 inches, and was large in the sub-divisions of Calcutta (1·59 inches) and Burdwan (1·33 inches). The excess was thus shown chiefly in Lower Bengal and rain decreased northwards and westwards. The amounts received were comparatively small in the sub-divisions of Durbhanga, Patna and Ranchi and actually or practically no rain was received in the sub-division of Bahraich and the Indo-Gangetic Plain (West). Amounts averaging more than a tenth of an inch were also received during the week in the Burma Dry Area and in the sub-divisions of Waltair, Calicut, Mysore and Madura.

The total rainfall of the period 29th November to 24th April was in excess in the Delta of Bengal and the sub-divisions of Dibrupur, Burdwan and Mysore, practically normal in the Burma Coast, the Brahmaputra Valley, the East Coast (South) and the sub-divisions of Cuttack, Ahmedabad, Bellary and Madura, and in defect elsewhere. The percentage of defect is largest in Baluchistan, the North-West Dry Area, the Indo-Gangetic Plain (West) and the sub-divisions of Jaipur, Rajkot, Bombay, Raipur and Bahraich.

The standing spring crops have been damaged by rats in parts of Rajkot and by insects in parts of Ahmedabad and are suffering from insufficient moisture in parts of Gujarat and Belgaum, but are generally in good condition elsewhere. The harvesting of the spring crops is completed in Karachi and is nearly over in Larkana, Hyderabad, Thana and Kolaba and is in progress in parts of Sukkur, the Upper Sind Frontier, Thar and Parkar, Broach, Nasik, Poona and Baroda. Threshing continues in parts of Sukkur, the Upper Sind Frontier, Thar and Parkar, Nasik and Kanara. The estimate of outturn of the spring crops is good in Satara ; fair in parts of other districts of the Deccan and in Sind, the Konkan and the Karnatak and moderate to poor in Gujarat. The preparation of lands for next season is in progress in parts of the Konkan, the Karnatak, Broach, Surat, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur, Rajkot and Wadhwan. GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Circular No. 4-F.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Department of Revenue and Agriculture (Forests),—dated Simla, the 24th April, 1902.

READ the following Regulations for 1902 of the Forest Service Branch in Cooper's Hill College:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE FOREST SERVICE BRANCH OF THE ROYAL INDIAN ENGINEERING COLLEGE, COOPER'S HILL, FOR 1902.

(Postal and Telegraph address, Englefield Green. Railway Station, Egham, L. and S. W. Railway.)

[The arrangements hereinafter described are subject to revision under the orders of the Secretary of State for India.]

1. The examination for admission to the Indian Forest Service through the Royal Indian Engineering College, which will be conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners, will be simultaneous with, and (except that German must be taken as an obligatory subject and that Botany is added) in the same subjects and papers as the examination for the Indian Police Department,* which is usually held in June.

Candidates may undergo the written part of their examination in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or at any of the provincial centres at which the simultaneous examination of candidates for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, is to be held. A list of the probable centres may be obtained from the Civil Service Commissioners at any time after January 1902. The oral and practical parts of the examination will be held in London only.

A fee of £2 is required from candidates examined in London, but when the written examination is conducted elsewhere than in London the fee is £3. Candidates examined at a college or school will probably be required to pay a local fee in addition to the fee of £3 (in order to defray the expenses of superintendence), as to which they should obtain early information from the college or school authorities. The fee payable to the Civil Service Commissioners must be paid by means of stamps of the specified amount. Instructions on this point will be issued to candidates about 10 days before the examination.

2. The number of candidates to be selected annually varies according to the requirements of the Forest Service in India; the figures as regards each particular year will be advertised from time to time. In 1902 there will be eight appointments offered for competition.

3. Candidates for the Indian Forest Department are selected under the following arrangements:

- (1) An applicant must be a natural-born British subject, and must be above 17 and under 20 years of age on the 1st June of the year in which he competes for an appointment. He must be unmarried, and if he marries before reaching India he will forfeit his appointment.
- (2) An applicant must send† to the Judicial and Public Department of the India Office, on or before the 1st day of May of the year in which he proposes to compete:
 - (a) His name, parentage and home address, a certificate or other satisfactory evidence of the date of his birth, and the written consent of parent or guardian that his name should be recorded as a candidate.
 - (b) A statement of the places of education at which he may have been, accompanied by testimonials of good conduct, during the last four years.

* Candidates may, if qualified, enter for both the Police and the Forest Department. They will, in such case, have to pay the fee due in respect of each examination.

† There is no form of application; the documents specified in paragraph 3 (2), Clauses (a) and (b) should be enclosed in a covering letter addressed to the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office, London.

- (3) Applicants will have to appear before a Medical Board* at the India Office, particular stress being laid upon good vision† and hearing. A physical test will also be imposed, so as to ensure the selection of persons of active habits and powers of endurance.
- (4) Applicants who have passed the medical examination and the physical test will be permitted to undergo an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners in the following subjects‡ (Classes I and II), marks being assigned as follows :

CLASS I.§

Candidates must obtain such an aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole as may indicate in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners a competent amount of general proficiency.

- (5) The Secretary of State will nominate as probationers such competitors as attain the highest aggregate of marks (provided they obtain the aggregate referred to above and satisfy the requisite conditions in other respects). These probationers will then enter the College, where they will be further trained for the Forest Service of India.
- (6) If the full number of competent probationers required in any year cannot be obtained from the persons so examined, the Secretary of State reserves a discretion to fill up the deficiency by selecting any other person or persons whom, after consulting the authorities of the College, he may consider properly qualified to become probationers for the Forest Service.

* It is suggested that a candidate, before commencing any special course of study, should undergo a thorough medical examination. By such an examination any serious physical disqualification would probably be revealed, and the candidate might thus be spared the expense and waste of time involved in a course of preparation for a service for which he is physically unfit.

Candidates for the Forest Service may, if they wish it, undergo a preliminary examination by the Medical Board at the India Office, not more than two years before they are qualified to compete, under the following conditions :

- Applications must be addressed to the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, Whitehall, London, accompanied by a fee of two guineas and by a statement of the candidate's age.
- Candidates must pay their travelling expenses.
- Candidates considered to be unfit by the Medical Board at this preliminary examination, are not bound to accept its opinion, but may, at their own risk, continue their studies, with the knowledge that they will have to submit themselves for a final medical examination by the Medical Board, shortly before the literary examination at which they wish to compete.
- On the other hand, it must be distinctly understood that the preliminary examination, by the Medical Board is held solely for the candidate's information, and that, if after that examination he is reported to be apparently fit, he has not on that account any claim to be accepted as physically fit when he presents himself for the final Medical Examination, upon which alone his acceptance or rejection will depend. Candidates may be considered fit for the Service at the preliminary examination, but may be found at the final examination to be unfit, either on account of some physical defect which did not exist or passed undetected at the preliminary examination, or for other reasons.

† On the subject of the standard of eyesight required for the Indian services, a pamphlet can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office.

‡ Reprints of the papers set at previous examinations, together with tables of the marks assigned to the candidates are published by the Civil Service Commissioners, and can be obtained through any bookseller from the following Agents - EVANS & SPOTTISWOODE, East Harding Street, Fleet Street, London, E.C., OLIVER & BORN, Edinburgh; and E. P. PONSOMBY, 116, Grafton Street, Dublin. The price is one shilling.

§ All the subjects of Class I. may be taken up. Only two of the subjects of Class II. may be taken up.

¶ Candidates must qualify in German.

4. The course of study for candidates for the India Forest Service extends over about three years. For six terms the candidates will prosecute their studies at the College, and during the period of foreign study, which will occupy the remainder of the course, they will visit, under suitable supervision, such Continental forests as may be selected for the purpose. Excursions may also be made for purposes of instruction, both during term time and during part of the vacations.

5. Each annual session begins in September, and is divided into three terms, with vacations of about four weeks at Christmas,* two weeks at Easter,* and eight weeks in the summer.

6. A charge of £ 61 is made for each of the six terms spent at the College; for the period of foreign study the charge is £ 70 for each of the three terms; the amounts must be paid terminally in advance to the Bank of England. Receivable orders, with full directions as to the mode of payment, will be forwarded from the India Office to the parents or guardians shortly before the fees fall due. A student will not be allowed to come into residence or to start for or continue his study of foreign forests until his fee for the term has been paid.

7. A deposit of £5 is required to be paid by each student on admission to the College as caution money, to cover charges incurred by him for damage to books, instruments, &c., or any College bills outstanding on leaving the College. Any balance over and above such charges will be repaid. This deposit is to be paid with the fee for the first term, making the total payment on that occasion £66.

8. The foregoing payments cover all charges for tuition, board according to the College tariff, lodging, with washing up to a cost of 2s. a week, and ordinary medical attendance while in residence at the College. When students are on tour, and during the course of practical instruction, whether in Great Britain or on the Continent, the Secretary of State will defray the expenses of (1) board, lodging, and washing (the aggregate maximum expenditure under these heads being 10s. per diem); (2) travelling expenses; and (3) fees to local Forest officers, &c.

Students are required to provide their own class books and drawing instruments.† Drawing paper, drawing boards, and surveying instruments are provided by the College.

The prescribed course of study comprises the following subjects:

I.—Auxiliary Subjects.

|-------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Geometrical Drawing. | 7. Physics. |
| 2. Freehand Drawing. | 8. Chemistry. |
| 3. Surveying. | 9. Geology and Mineralogy. |
| 4. Forest Engineering. | 10. Entomology. |
| 5. Accounts. | 11. Botany. |
| 6. German. | 12. Drill and Gymnastics. |

II.—Forestry, Theoretical and Practical, in all its branches.

10. Every student is required to conform to the College rules, to exhibit due diligence in his studies throughout the course, and to give evidence of satisfactory progress in such manner as may be required, failing which, or in the event of serious misconduct, he will be liable to be removed from the College, or to be sent back from the foreign study, which may entail the loss of his appointment.

11. During the course of study the proficiency of the students is tested by periodical examinations, and on the termination of their studies there is a final examination. Each student may also, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for India, be required from time to time to appear before the Medical Board, and should the result be unsatisfactory he cannot claim to be allowed to complete the course.

12. The subjects enumerated in paragraph 9 are grouped in certain main branches of study,‡

* While in actual residence at the College. During the third year, spent in study on the Continent, only one week is allowed at Easter.

† The "Cooper's Hill" case can be procured from the makers at a reduced price if obtained on order from the College. Intending students can apply to the Secretary to the College for these orders.

and a fixed minimum of qualification is required—(1) in each separate branch; (2) in each separate subject taught at the College and during forest tours; and (3) in all subjects taken together. Students who obtain these minima will receive the College diploma in Forestry.

13. Candidates who have obtained this diploma, and are found to be of sound constitution and free from physical defects which would render them unsuitable for employment in the Forest Department (the final decision on which points will rest with the Secretary of State for India), will be appointed Assistant Conservators in the Forest Department of India in the order of their standing at the end of the final examination. They will be allowed before leaving the College to state their preference in respect to the Provinces to which they desire to be allotted; but the distribution will be made to the several Provinces according to the needs of the public service, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for India after consulting the President of the College. Officers are, however, at all times liable to be transferred from one Province to another at the pleasure of the Government of India.

14. Within a month of his nomination as Assistant Conservator, each nominee must sign articles of agreement describing the terms and conditions of his appointment; he must embark for India when required to do so by the Secretary of State, and will be provided with a free passage. Failure to embark at the stated time will, in the absence of satisfactory explanation, lead to forfeiture of appointment.

15. The pay of an Assistant Conservator of Forests will begin from the date of reporting arrival in India. Probationers who acquit themselves creditably during their course at Cooper's Hill College will begin on a salary of Rs. 350 a month. It will, however, rest with the President of the College to decide whether any of the probationers, though they have obtained the College diploma in Forestry, have failed to deserve that rate of initial salary. Such probationers, if any, will begin on a salary of Rs. 250 a month; and this difference of salary will continue until the first departmental examination is passed in India. Officers entering the Forest Service will be required to contribute a subscription ranging from a compulsory minimum of 5 per cent. up to a voluntary maximum of 10 per cent. of their salary to the Forest Officers' Provident Fund. Such contributions, with compound interest, will accumulate till the date of retirement, when the total sum will be paid to the contributor, or, in the event of death before retirement, to his legal representative.

16. Promotion, leave, and pension will be governed by the regulations laid down by the Government of India and made applicable to Forest officers, such regulations being subject to any modifications or alterations which may be made in them from time to time by the Government of India, and their interpretation in case of any doubt arising being left to that Government. The pension rules applicable to Public Works and Telegraph officers appointed from Cooper's Hill College have been extended to Forest officers appointed from England; and the Inspector-General of Forests and Conservators of the 1st Grade are now eligible for the extra pension of Rs. 1,000 per annum admissible to an officer after at least three years of approved service as a head of a department in any province, if considered deserving of the special concession. A copy of the Regulations relative to these matters can be seen on application either at the Library or the Record Department of the India Office; the principal rules are contained in the Abstract of the Civil Service Regulations, as given in the "India List and India Office List," published by Messrs. Harrison and Sons, 59, Pall Mall, London, which can be procured through any bookseller.

17. Every candidate, before proceeding to India, is required to furnish to the President of the College satisfactory evidence of his competency in riding. It is desirable that this evidence should be forthcoming before the candidate proceeds to the Continent for his final year of study.

GENERAL RULES.

18. Chemical, physical, and botanical laboratories, a forestry museum, a forest nursery, a library, and gymnasium are attached to the College. Means are also provided for the practice of photography. Students making use of the laboratories are supplied with the needful apparatus.

19. Each student residing in the College is provided with a separate room, and with fuel and light, also with the necessary attendance. Furniture and bedding are supplied by the College, but students are required to provide their own towels and bed linen. Meals are taken in Hall. Wine and beer are not included in the ordinary fare, but can be obtained from the College cellar at fixed prices.

STUDENTS NOT NOMINATED FOR THE INDIAN FOREST SERVICE, BUT DESIROUS OF OBTAINING A DIPLOMA IN FORESTRY FROM COOPER'S HILL COLLEGE.

20. Students not nominated for the Indian Forest Service may be received into the College, as far as the available accommodation permits. Such students may pass through the course of instruction prescribed for the nominees of the Indian Forest Service, as detailed above, or they may be permitted to participate in the instruction given in certain subjects only. On attaining the prescribed minima of marks in the several branches of study and in totals as laid down above, they will receive, as the case may require, either the College diploma in Forestry or special certificates showing in what subjects they have followed the instruction, and with what result.

No student who was not under the age of 20 on the 1st June in the year in which he entered the College will be permitted to compete for any scholarship or prize.

21. Candidates who desire to be admitted under paragraph 20 may submit the necessary application at any time, but not later than the 15th day of June of the year named for admission, except with the special permission of the President. The application must be made on the prescribed forms, which can be obtained from the Secretary of the College.

22. Candidates whose applications are found satisfactory as to character and in other respects will be required to undergo an examination, to be held at the College, about the last week in June of the year for admission. The objects of the examination will be to ascertain whether the candidate is qualified to follow the course of instruction with advantage (or certain parts of it, as the case may be). Candidates who do not come up to the required standard will not be admitted to the College.

The President may dispense with the whole or any portion of this examination in the case of a candidate who produces an University diploma, or other similar certificate granted by a recognised examining body.

23. Candidates admitted to the College under paragraph 20, who propose to pass through the full prescribed course of study, will be required to pay the same fees in every respect as those paid by the nominees for the Indian Forest Service. Candidates who do not become resident, and are admitted only to certain subjects of study, will be required to pay the fees which may be fixed in each special case in consideration of the extent of their studies. The candidates of both classes will be required to abide by the general rules of the College.

FOREST ENTRANCE EXAMINATION.

SYLLABUS.

Mathematics I.—Arithmetic; Algebra up to and including the Binomial Theorem; the theory and use of logarithms; Euclid, Books I to IV and VI; Plane Trigonometry, up to and including solution of triangles; Mensuration.

Latin.—Passages selected from the authors usually read in schools will be set for translation into English. Passages from English authors will be given for translation into Latin prose and verse, but candidates will be allowed, in the place of verse composition, to answer questions of a simple character, which will test whether they possess a fundamental knowledge of the grammar of the language, and such an elementary acquaintance with Roman History as is required for the intelligent study of the books they have read.

Greek.—Passages will be set for translation into English from the authors usually read in schools, and in other respects the Examination will proceed on the same lines as in Latin.

French.—Translations of unseen passages from French into English, and from English into French. The passages for translation will be taken, mainly, from standard authors, and a few simple questions may be asked on the passages set, as to the structure and character of the language, and allusions of obvious and general interest. The viva voce Examination will include Dictation. 300 marks will be allotted to colloquial knowledge of the language.

German.—The passages for translation will be taken mainly from standard authors, and in other respects the Examination will proceed on the same lines as in French.

The standard of positive merit will be looked for in logical arrangement of thought, and in accuracy and propriety of expression, but large deductions of marks will be made for faults of writing and spelling.

(Candidates are also warned that for similar faults in the use of the English language, similar deductions will be made from the marks obtained in other subjects.)

The paper on the special period will be confined to distinctly modern history. It will require from the candidates more minute knowledge than the General Paper.

The Special Period will be for 1902 :—From 1760 to 1815.

Natural Science Subjects.—The standard of Examination in these subjects will be such as may be reasonably expected from the education given at schools possessing appliances for practical instruction, such as a laboratory, &c. A considerable portion of the marks will be given for proficiency shown in the practical part of the Examination. A knowledge of the metric system will be expected.

Chemistry—The laws of chemical combination and decomposition, and the preparation, classification, and properties of the principal metallic and non-metallic elements, and of such of their compounds as are treated of in inorganic chemistry, in the practical part of the examination only the more ordinary apparatus and the less dangerous reagents will be supplied, and no candidate will be allowed to bring his own apparatus or reagents.

Heat.—The elementary portion of the subject.

PUBLIC.

Simla, the end May, 1902.

No. 1322.—The services of Mr. W. Macdonald, Executive Engineer, are replaced at the disposal of the Public Works Department, with effect from the 29th April 1902.

No. 1324.—In order to provide for the suitable recognition and reward of conspicuous acts of gallantry performed by Natives of India, whether servants of Government or not, in aid or support of the public authority or safety, the Governor General in Council, with the assent of His Majesty's Secretary of State for India in Council, has resolved to institute a Second or Civil Division of the Order of Merit. The rules for admission to this Division, which have received the approval of the Secretary of State, are hereby published for general information. The new decoration will be conferred only for acts of gallantry performed after the institution of the Order.

Rules for admission to the Civil Division of the Order of Merit.

1. The "Order of Merit" (Civil Division) consists of three classes, and is conferred on Natives of India, whether servants of Government or not, as a reward for personal bravery shown in aid or support of the public authority or safety. The insignia are, for the first class, gold; for the second, silver with a gold wreath; and for the third, silver only; to be worn on the left breast, pendant from a dark-red ribbon with blue edges.

2. Admission to the third class is obtained by any conspicuous act of individual gallantry; admission to the second class can be obtained only by members of the third class, and for a similar act of gallantry; and, in like manner, the Order of the first class is conferred only on members of the second class. In recommending persons for admission to the Order, the act of gallantry must be particularly specified, and the statements of eye-witnesses to the deed must be attached. It is of the highest importance, in view to maintaining the value and prestige of the Order, that the greatest discretion shall be used in submitting recommendations; as it is very desirable that the distinction should only be granted for conduct which can clearly be defined as an act of conspicuous gallantry.

3. Admission to each class of the Order rests with the Government of India alone; and, when the act of gallantry has taken place in India, recommendations for the reward will be forwarded through the District Officers to the Local Government, for submission to the Government of India.

4. A record in each case of the particular act of gallantry for which the Order has been conferred is kept in the office of the Secretary to the Government in the Home Department; and a certificate signed by him, declaring the grant of the Order, will be given to each individual on his admission to, or advancement in it.

5. District Officers are required to report immediately to the Local Government, for communication to the Government of India in the Home Department, any casualty by death amongst individuals admitted to the Order which may occur previous to the receipt of the decoration.

6. The following are the rules for the disposal of the insignia of the Civil Division of the "Order of Merit" on the decease or promotion of members:

In cases of advancement to a superior class of the Civil Division of the "Order of Merit," the inferior badge is to be forwarded, through the prescribed channel, to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department, Calcutta. The insignia of the Order are, however, allowed to remain in the possession of the family of a deceased member.

7. Whenever a servant of the Government, being a member of the Order, is dismissed the service, and whenever any member of the Order is convicted of any such offence, or subjected by a Criminal Court to any such order, as implies, in the opinion of the Local Government, a defect of character which unfits him to be a member of the Order, a full report of the circumstances shall be transmitted to the Government of India in the Home Department together with an expression of the Local Government's opinion; and it shall, thereupon, be open to the Government of India to direct the dismissal of any such member from the Order and to require the surrender of his decoration.

8. As a rule the conferment of the Order of Merit in the Civil Division will not be accompanied by any grant of money; but the Government of India reserve the right of making such a grant, in addition to conferring the Order, in special cases.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the past seven days, ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 1st May 1902, based on the India Daily Weather
Reports of the period.

Showers, more or less local in character, have continued during the past week in Upper Burma, Assam and Bengal and a few showers have fallen on the Burma Coast. The only station that has received heavy rain in the above areas is Silchar, where the total fall of the week amounted to 11·85 inches, 4·30 inches of which were reported on one day, the 27th. No rain fell in the Peninsula, except in Orissa and in the south. Showers were reported on the 29th from Balasore and Cuttack and light scattered showers were received in the south of the Peninsula on most days of the week. On the 30th Colombo reported a heavy fall of 4·11 inches accompanied with a brisk fall of the barometer and a shift of wind to the east, changes which appeared to indicate unsettled weather in the sea area to the south, but the wind force continued light and the barometer rose slightly next day, thus showing that the disturbance was probably only local.

At the beginning of the week easterly winds were blowing up the Gangetic Plain and had extended into the East Punjab, while a shallow depression in North-West India was advancing eastwards through the South Punjab and Rajputana. Light to moderate rain was general along the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas on the 25th and 26th, falls slightly exceeding one inch being reported from Murree, Sonemarg, Dras, Ludhiana and Roorkee. As the depression advanced eastwards and established a cyclonic circulation in the Gangetic Plain, it cut off the flow of humid easterly winds into the Punjab, and showers ceased in the Upper India hills and submontane districts. Weather continued fine in North-West India until the close of the week when a shallow depression in Upper India again gave clouds and feebly unsettled weather in the hills and submontane districts. No rain was, however, reported except a few light showers in Kashmir.

The rainfall of the week averaged more than a tenth of an inch in the Burma Coast, Burma (Wet), the Delta of Bengal, the Brahmaputra Valley, the Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas (with the exception of the sub-division of Bahraich) and the sub-divisions of Lahore, Cuttack, Calicut and Mysore. It was considerably to largely in excess of the normal in the Brahmaputra Valley, the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas and the sub-division of Narayanganj.

The rainfall of the period 29th November to 1st May was normal in the Burma Coast, the Brahmaputra Valley, South India, the East Coast (South) and the sub-divisions of Dinajpur, Cuttack, Ahmedabad and Bellary; and in excess in the Delta of Bengal and the sub-division of Burdwan. In the remaining divisions the defect expressed as a percentage of the normal was most marked in Baluchistan, the North-West Dry Area, the Indo-Gangetic Plain (West), the West Satpuras and the sub-divisions of Bahraich, Waltair, Raipur, Jaipur, Bombay and Rajkot, where the percentage of defect ranged from 77 to 97.

3. The recruitment of Coorgs will be carried out at Mercara under the direct orders of the officer commanding the regiment, who will be entirely responsible for all recruits enlisted.

4. Two British officers of the reconstituted regiment may be detached at a time on recruiting duty until the corps is completed up to strength. They will be allowed to travel at the public expense, by rail and dak, and will be entitled to the travelling allowance authorised for an Assistant Recruiting Staff Officer, vis., Rs. 5 per diem, when absent from Mercara on recruiting duty.

5. Such appointments will be subject to no conditions other than physical and social fitness.

6. The men now serving in the 11th Madras Infantry will be disposed of as follows :

Those passed as fit for further service will be allowed to volunteer for any of the Madras Infantry regiments named in the margin, or for the reserves of the same, provided that the classes to which they belong are enlisted or represented therein. This concession is subject to the proviso that the fixed establishment of the regiments to which transfers are allowed is not exceeded thereby.

- (ii) Men (including public followers) not volunteering for other regiments, or for whom no suitable place can be found either in the reconstituted regiment or elsewhere, and men rejected as unsuitable for retention in the service under (i), will be discharged on the terms noted below :

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the past seven days, ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 8th May 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The most important feature of the meteorology of the past week was the formation of a storm in the Andaman Sea, due to the first advance of monsoon winds in the south-east of the Bay. The observations received on the 5th from Lower Burma and Tenasserim showed that a storm was forming to the south of Diamond Island. It developed rapidly during the next twenty-four hours and advancing northwards was shown on the morning of the 6th as a storm of moderate intensity crossing the Lower Burma Coast slightly to the east of Diamond Island. Very strong winds of almost hurricane force and a tremendous sea were reported from Diamond Island and heavy rain was received in Lower Burma. The amount received at Diamond Island was 3.92 inches and at Bassein 5.88 inches. The storm advanced inland during the day, but had practically broken up by the morning of the 7th, only a shallow residual depression being shown near Yamethin. Heavy rain, however, had continued in Lower Burma, Bassein reporting a fall of 5.20 inches on the 7th, making a total of 11.08 inches for the preceding forty-eight hours, and Moulmein a fall of 4.07 inches. The storm gave light to moderate rain in Central and Upper Burma and Tenasserim, the most important falls being 2.78 inches on the 7th at Mergui and 2.48 inches at Toungoo. Heavy rain must also have fallen at Rangoon, but the rain-gauge at the new observatory lately established at the Secretariat Buildings is not yet in position, and hence no record of the rainfall was obtained.

Practically no rain was received during the week in North-West India where strongly marked hot-weather conditions prevailed. On the first two days of the week showers were fairly general in North-East India, but during the remainder of the week Bengal and Assam were practically rainless. Showers were reported from Chota Nagpur on the 4th, 5th and 6th. Showers were also received during the week in Orissa, the Deccan, South India and the West Coast. Coimbatore reported a moderately heavy fall of 2.87 inches on the 5th.

The rainfall of the week was in large excess in the Burma Coast, where it averaged 5.54 inches, as compared with a normal fall of 1.93 inches. The rainfall of the week was also in excess in Burma (Wet), South India and the sub-divisions of Burdwan, Ranchi, Raipur, Bombay, Bijapur and Hyderabad (Deccan). It was practically normal in the sub-divisions of Calcutta, Cuttack and Calicut and in defect elsewhere.

A new rainfall period commences this week. The variations from the normal of the period are hence the same as those of the week,

2. It will be observed that the effect of the Act is to prohibit the immigration into Australia of persons unable to pass a writing test in an European language and of all persons whatever who are under contract or agreement to perform manual labour in the Commonwealth. The Governor General in Council requests all Local Governments to take such measures as seem to them best calculated to make the provisions of the Act generally known to natives of India, more especially in places from which emigration to the Australian colonies is believed to be most common. Intending emigrants should be warned at the ports of embarkation of the risks they incur in proceeding to these colonies.

2. The candidate should apply to an Examiner of Public Works Accounts not later than 30 days previous to the date fixed for the examination and obtain his consent to conduct the examination, if examination at the College is not convenient. The application must bear the address of the candidate, must be accompanied by a fee of Rs 10 and the following certificates, and must be forwarded by him, not direct to the Principal, but through the Examiner.

Certificates may be submitted in original, or true copies attested by an officer of the Engineer or Accounts Branch, but none will be returned:—

The names of these candidates should be entered in a statement showing their ages and their addresses, and also showing where each candidate is to be examined, whether at the college or at the office of the Examiner of Accounts. This statement, together with the fees, should be transmitted to the Principal not later than 15 days after the dates fixed in paragraph 2 for the submission of applications of candidates.

The examination is held annually at the Civil Engineering College, Sibpur, on the 1st Monday in July. The examination will be conducted either at the College or by an Examiner, Public Works Accounts (including Railway and Telegraph), in Bengal, Assam, and Burma only. The examination will be ipso facto vitiated, if it be not held (begun and completed) on the dates fixed; but the officer who will conduct the examination may make his own arrangements in regard to the place and hour of examination with the candidates.

Candidates will not be examined in any of the Calcutta offices.

A candidate already in permanent Government employ* may be allowed to compete

* This term includes employment under Local Boards and foreign bodies, if such is pensionable by the British Government.

in the examination, even if he is more than 25 years of age, and may be appointed to an accountantship if he passes it; but if he is not already in pensionable service, he will be eligible only for appointment to the nonpensionable establishment on State Railways.

2. The candidate should apply to an Examiner of Public Works Accounts not later than 30 days previous to the date fixed for the examination and obtain his consent to conduct the examination, if examination at the College is not convenient. The application must bear the address of the candidate, must be accompanied by a fee of Rs 10 and the following certificates, and must be forwarded by him, not direct to the Principal, but through the Examiner. *

Certificates may be submitted in original, or true copies attested by an officer of the Engineer or Accounts Branch, but none will be returned:—

- (1) Certificate of good character signed by applicant's immediate official superior, or by the instructor under whom he has been educated, or by some other superior under whom he may have been brought up or employed, or to whom he may be well known. (This certificate must have special reference to the two years immediately preceding the application.)
- (2) Certificate of age (baptismal or of birth not required, if the candidate is already in permanent Government employ).
- (3) Certificate that the application is in the candidate's hand-writing.

NOTE.—A candidate already in Government service should, in like manner, submit his application through his immediate official superior to an Examiner of Accounts qualified to hold the particular examination, and should state whether he desires to be examined at the office of the Examiner of Accounts concerned or at the College.

It will rest with the Examiner of Accounts, to whom the candidate submits his application, to decide, on a consideration of the certificates submitted, whether the candidate should be allowed to appear for the examination whether his application should be rejected. The Examiner of Accounts will then forward to the Principal, for registration, the names of the accepted candidates. The names of these candidates should be entered in a statement showing their ages and their addresses, and also showing where each candidate is to be examined, whether at the college or at the office of the Examiner of Accounts. This statement, together with the fees, should be transmitted to the Principal not later than 15 days after the dates fixed in paragraph 2 for the submission of applications of candidates.

3. Examination papers that are issued for examination need not be returned.

4. Each examination is complete in itself. A candidate who has failed in an examination, and presents himself for examination on a subsequent occasion, must undergo the full examination and furnish fresh fee and certificates.

5 If from any cause a candidate fails to appear for the examination, the fee paid will not be refunded.

6. Passed candidates should apply, not to the Principal of the College, nor to the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, but direct to the Examiner of Public Works Accounts in the province or railway under whom they may desire to be employed.

7. It must be distinctly understood that the passing of this examination does not give any claim to an appointment, and that in making appointments, preference will be given to qualified persons who are already employed in the Department.

8. The Civil Engineering College acts solely as an examining body in reference to admission to the 4th grade of Accountants, Public Works Department.

9. Candidates for the 4th grade Accountantship examination, who are not Government servants and over 25 years of age, are allowed to appear at the examination at Sibpur Centre only, but, even if successful, they are debarred from employment in the service of Government, and their names will be excluded from the list of passed candidates, which is furnished to the Accountant-General, Public Works Department.

10. Candidates over 25 years of age should apply in writing to the Principal of the Civil Engineering College, not later than 30 days previous to the examination. The application to be accompanied by the fee of rupees ten.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 23rd May, 1902:

NO. 6 OF 1902.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894.

VIII of 1894. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894; It is hereby enacted as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Short title and duration. Tariff (Amendment) Act, 1902; and

(2) It shall remain in force until the thirty-first day of August, 1903.

VIII of 1894. 2. After section 8-A of the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, as amended by the Addition of new section 8-B after section 8-A, Act VIII, 1894. XIV of 1899. Indian Tariff Amendment Act, 1899, the following section shall be added, namely:

"8-B. (1) Where the rate of duty or other taxation imposed in any country, dependency or colony upon sugar not produced therein exceeds the rate of duty or other taxation imposed upon sugar produced therein by more than the equivalent of six francs per one hundred kilogrammes in the case of refined sugar or five francs and fifty centimes per one hundred kilogrammes in the case of other sugar, then, upon the importation of any sugar from such country, dependency or colony into British India, whether the same is imported directly from the country of production or otherwise, and whether it is imported in the same condition as when exported from the country of production or has been changed in condition by manufacture or otherwise, the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, impose, in addition to any other duty or taxation imposed under this Act or any other law for the time being in force, a special duty not exceeding one moiety of such excess.

(2) The Governor General in Council may from time to time, by general or special order, declare, for the purposes of sub-section (1),—

(a) what articles or substances containing any saccharine matter shall be deemed to be 'sugar' and what kinds of sugar shall be deemed to be 'refined sugar' or 'other sugar', respectively; and

(b) what sums in the currency of British India shall be deemed to be the equivalent of 'francs' and 'centimes', respectively.

(3) The amount of the excess referred to in sub-section (1) shall be from time to time ascertained, determined and declared by the Governor General in Council, and the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules for the identification of sugar and for the assessment and collection of any special duty imposed upon the importation thereof under sub-section (1)."

3. This Act shall not apply to any imported Act not to apply in article or substance, the bill certain cases. of lading for which was signed and given before the twenty-third day of May 1902.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Indian Tariff Amendment Act, 1899 (XIV of 1899), was passed with the object of enabling the Government of India to impose countervailing duties on bounty-fed articles at the port of importation and thus to preserve the sugar cultivation and industries of this country.

2. That Act gave power only to countervail bounties granted by foreign Governments. It has since been made clear, by the proceedings of the Brussels Sugar Conference and otherwise, that the operations of the trade combinations known as cartels have the effect of creating bounties on exports of sugar in addition to the bounties given by the Governments.

3. The present Bill empowers the Government of India to countervail these bounties also by imposing further duties at the Indian port of importation.

The 21st May, 1902.

J. F. FINLAY.

Secretary to the Government of India.

(24 & 25 VICT., C. 67, AND 55 & 56 VICT., C. 14).

The Council met at the Viceregal Lodge, Simla, on Friday, the 23rd May, 1902.

PRESENT:

His Excellency Baron Curzon, P.C., G.M.S.I., G.M.I.E., Viceroy and Governor General of India, presiding.

His Honour Sir C. M. Rivaz, K.C.S.I., Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab.

INDIAN TARIFF (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY moved for leave to introduce a Bill further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894. He said:—"This Bill, though important, does not involve the acceptance by this Council of any new principle. It will merely supplement legislation which was accepted by the Council three years ago.

" In March, 1899, Act XIV of 1899 was passed, giving power to the Governor General in Council to impose import-duties, equivalent to the amount of the bounty, on any article in respect of which on its export from the country of production a bounty had been granted by the country. The intention was to impose duties sufficient to countervail all bounties received by sugar exported from the various countries. It was then believed that the only bounties were those, whether direct or indirect, granted by the Governments of the producing countries, and the wording of the Act was limited accordingly. It has now been found that there are other bounties not granted by the Governments, but merely rendered possible by the fiscal legislation of the State. It is to include bounties of this description that the present Bill is proposed.

" The policy of imposing countervailing duties, then an entirely new departure in India, was fully discussed in 1899: it was accepted by the Government and by this Council, and generally approved by public opinion. In the three years which have since elapsed, there has been no withdrawal from that attitude, and there has been no desire evinced by any section of the community that the policy then adopted should be reversed. I need not therefore take up the time of the Council by defending the policy. I have only to show the need to supplement the Act in order to give more complete effect to its intention. This I will now do as briefly as possible.

" The two countries which send bounty-fed sugar to India most largely are Germany and Austria-Hungary. I lay before the Council a table showing the imports from those countries in each year since 1896-97.

	1896-97.	1897-98.	1898-99.	1899-1900.	1900-01.	1901-02.
	Cwt.	Cwt.	Cwt.	Cwt.	Cwt.	Cwt.
Austria-Hungary	115,514	945,745	1,063,737	777,821	1,321,310	2,257,928
Germany	758,806	1,203,309	413,671	60,526	401,080	577,139
Total	874,320	2,149,054	1,477,408	838,347	1,723,290	2,835,067

" The table shows that the imports from the two countries had risen to over 2 million cwt. in 1897-98 and to nearly $1\frac{1}{2}$ million in 1898-99. Those high imports led to the enactment of the Act of 1899.

" Before adverting to the imports since March, 1899, I may notice the course of prices after the imposition of the countervailing duties. It is through prices that bounties on the one hand and countervailing duties on the other affect the volume of trade in any article. In March, 1899, the Calcutta price of beet sugar was Rs. 7-1 a maund. After the passing of the Act of that date, it rose steadily month by month to Rs. 8-14 in October, 1899: in November it receded to Rs. 8-11-6, and in December of that year it fell by nearly a rupee to Rs. 7-12: it then resumed its upward course till it reached Rs. 9-4 in June, 1900; after that month it began to show a downward tendency; and since September, 1900, it has fallen steadily to the low point of Rs. 6-10 in March of the present year. The conclusions to be drawn from these fluctuations are the same as I shall now draw from the imports after March, 1900.

" In the first year of the imposition of the duties, 1899-1900, the imports fell off considerably, from 1,063,737 cwt. to 777,821 cwt. for Austria-Hungary and from 413,671 cwt. to 60,526 cwt. for Germany, and the total from 1,477,408 cwt. to 838,347 cwt.,—a decrease of over 43 per cent. There are therefore grounds for thinking that in the first year the countervailing duties produced some of the desired effect, though other causes may have contributed to the decrease, inasmuch as the imports of the non-bounty-fed Mauritius refined sugar declined in the same year, though in a smaller proportion—about 20 per cent.

" But the two following years tell a very different story. The imports from both countries have increased in both years: the total rose to 1,723,290 cwt. in 1900-01 and to the record amount of 2,835,067 cwt. in 1901-02. There is therefore now no doubt that the countervailing duties have failed to check the imports of bounty-fed sugar, and have failed to secure for sugar produced in India the proper share of the market which it would have if foreign sugars were not unfairly favoured by the receipt of bounties.

"These results somewhat puzzled the Government of India as they became apparent, and the reason of them has been only fully elucidated by the investigations of the recent Conference at Brussels. These investigations have established beyond doubt the fact which had been gradually forcing itself into recognition, namely, that in addition to the bounties granted by the Governments, sugar produced in Austria-Hungary and in Germany also enjoys other bounties created by the operation of the cartel system. These cartels are private trade combinations of the sugar producers and refiners. The effect of their operations is to raise the price of sugar in the country enormously and to give to the members of the combination a very large profit on the sugar produced and refined by them and sold internally. And the combinations do not succeed in restricting the production of the country to the amount required for internal consumption: probably they do not attempt to do so, as it is necessary for them to conciliate the agrarian beet-growing interest: there is a large surplus of production which is exported; and the large profits made on the sugar sold in the country enable the members of the cartels to export the surplus at very low prices, possibly even below the cost of production, and still to realise a balance of profit on the whole of their transactions. The result is that a bounty is created precisely similar in effect to that of the State bounties on the export of sugar.

"The operations of the cartels are rendered possible only by the high duties imposed on sugar imported into the countries where they exist. If the import and excise duties were equal, the competition of foreign sugar would render the success of the combinations impossible. But though the cartel bounty is dependent for its existence on the fiscal regulations of the States, it is not paid or bestowed by the States. It does not therefore fall within the scope of our Act of 1890, and fresh legislation is necessary to enable us to counteract this bounty, the existence of which I hope I have proved to the satisfaction of the Council.

"But it may be said, granted that this additional bounty exists, has not the Convention adopted by the Brussels Conference arranged for the practical abolition of that and all other bounties? why have further special legislation in India when the object of the Government of India has been attained by general agreement of the Powers interested? The answer to this is two-fold. In the first place, it is not quite certain that the Convention will be ratified by all the contracting Powers. In the second place and chiefly, the Convention, when ratified, is not to come into force until September, 1903. This delay was granted in order to enable the bounty-giving countries to prepare gradually for the introduction of the new system: it was felt to refrain from insisting on the sudden and immediate abolition of the very important changes reluctantly accepted by them. But the effect of that long delay, extending over two beet-sowing seasons, will be a largely increased production to take advantage of the State and cartel bounties during the remainder of their existence. Mr. Ozanne, the Indian Delegate at the Brussels Conference, estimated that in September of next year there will be a surplus of sugar in stock amounting to 2,300,000 tons: and stated his opinion, that if our countervailing duties remain as at present, 'it seems certain that a clear danger of an inundation of the Indian market with foreign cartel bounty-fed sugar must be risked.'

"The most recent monthly returns show that this danger is a very real one, and that the increased importation has already begun, the members of the cartels having doubtless somewhat anticipated the conclusions of the Conference. In the four months from January to April of this year, the German and Austro-Hungarian sugar imports have amounted to 1,759,708 cwt. as compared with 954,223 cwt. in the same months of 1901. The comparison month by month is as follows:—

					1901. Cwt.	1902. Cwt.
January	...	...	...	...	185,938	568,386
February	...	...	...	...	220,196	340,109
March	...	...	...	...	285,777	360,695
April	...	...	...	...	264,312	400,513

"These figures lead to the probable and indeed almost certain conclusion that, if we take no action against the cartel bounties, very great injury, which may prove irreparable, will be done to the Indian sugar-industry in the interval of 15 or 16 months from the present time to September, 1903.

"We propose to limit the operation of the new Act to that interval. If the Convention is duly ratified and comes into force at the end of it, and if India joins, the whole of our special legislation against sugar bounties may have to be reviewed. In the contrary event, we can then consider whether the operation of the Act should be extended, with or without modification, in the light of the experience gained during more than a year of its working.

"I will conclude by calling attention to public opinion in India on the question. The Government of India early in January last authorised the Indian Delegate at the Brussels Conference to announce that they contemplated early action to countervail the cartel bounties, and they then entered into correspondence with the Secretary of State in order to determine the amount of the duties. But the decision was subject to consideration of the final conclusions of the Conference, which had to be awaited. In the meantime it has become clear that commercial opinion fully supports that action and agrees that it should not be postponed because of the terms of the Brussels Convention. We have been urged to take action in the direction of the Bill by the Bengal and Madras Chambers of Commerce and by companies and firms interested in sugar in all parts of India. One firm states that the competition of bounty-fed sugar has already forced it to close its crushing mills, and that it expects to have to close its refinery also. I may make the following quotations from the letters of the Chambers of Commerce. The Chairman of the Madras Chamber, in his letter of March 10, 1902, writes :

'The Chamber further begs to point out that, in any case, no relief can be expected to result from the Conference measures above-mentioned until eighteen months hence, and it submits that meanwhile the Indian industry should be protected from the ruinously and, as now shown by the Conference results, admittedly unfair competition to which it is being subjected. Unless such immediate steps are taken, the next eighteen months will almost certainly be utilized by the Continental sugar-producers to lay down in India such stocks as will effectually prevent any relief to Indian manufacturers for a considerably longer period. The position of the industry at present is such that a further long period of unremunerative prices may produce the ruin of the industry before the beneficial effect of the Brussels Convention can be felt.'

"The Secretary, Bengal Chamber of Commerce, in his letter of April 11, 1902, writes :

'Special relief is sought during the coming eighteen months, that is, until September, 1903, when, if the finding of the Brussels Convention is confirmed by the Continental Governments, the official bounties will come to an end and the import-duties in Germany and Austria will be reduced, thereby, it is expected, largely nullifying the effects of the cartel system. During these eighteen months it is anticipated that the Continental refineries, in order to avoid holding stocks when the bounties, direct and indirect, are abolished or reduced, will flood India with sugar at prices far below cost of production either here or elsewhere; and, unless adequate steps are taken in the direction of countervailing the cartel, an important indigenous industry, already seriously embarrassed, may be brought to the brink of ruin.'

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY introduced the Bill. He said :—"I may explain that the Government have thought it right to follow closely the conclusions and proposals embodied in the Brussels Convention. As already mentioned, we have limited the operation of the Bill to the period which has to elapse before the Convention can come into force.

"In fixing the amount of the countervailing duties, we have also followed exactly the formula adopted in the Convention. Article III requires the contracting Powers to limit the surtax (that is to say, the difference between the rate of duty or taxation to which foreign sugars are subject and that imposed on the home product), to a maximum of 6 francs per 100 kilogrammes for refined sugar, and of 5.50 francs for other sugar. The parties to the Convention are bound by Article IV to impose, on sugar coming from any country which continues to allow bounties, import-duties not less than the amount of the bounties.

And half of the excess of the surtax over the above-mentioned rates is declared to represent the bounty created by the surtax.

" This formula has the great merits of simplicity and of avoiding the necessity for periodical adjustments which would be required by the other methods suggested for calculating the cartel bounty. It has accordingly been adopted in sub-section (1) of the new section of the Tariff Act added by clause 2 of the Bill, which forms the substantive portion of the Bill. The other sub-sections contain subsidiary provisions required for the working of the new duties, and I need not describe them.

" Clause 3 of the Bill exempts from the new duties sugar shipped before to-day. This is intended to prevent cases of individual hardship which might arise from the imposition of new duties on sugar for the importation of which arrangements have been made before the importers had been given notice of the intention to impose them. That notice has been given by the introduction of the Bill today, and any sugar hereafter shipped will be subject to the duties if the Council passes the Bill."

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in English in the Gazette of India and in the local official Gazettes.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Council adjourned to Friday, the 6th June, 1902.

A. WILLIAMS,
Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 22nd May 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

Usual hot weather conditions have prevailed during the past week. Showers were received at the commencement of the week in the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas, but the establishment of a low pressure area in the Sub-Himalayan districts drew winds into west over the Gangetic Plain. Consequently fine dry weather prevailed in North-West and Central India till the 21st when a change in the pressure distribution again allowed humid winds to enter the East Punjab. Thunderstorms occurred during the next twenty-four hours in the Simla and Mussoorie Hills.

Light to moderate showers have continued throughout the week in North-East India, the Burma Coast and the south of the Peninsula; and a few thunderstorms were reported from the Deccan on the 20th, 21st and 22nd. Some of the falls received on the Burma Coast were heavy. On the 18th Moulmein reported a fall of 4.13 inches and Diamond Island 3.93 inches, and on the 21st a fall of 3.41 inches was reported from Tavoy. A thunderstorm gave a heavy local fall of 4.48 inches on the 20th at Bangalore.

The sea was rough throughout the week at Colombo and a fall of 4.54 inches of rain was reported on the 21st. The fall next day was, however, only .42 inch, and there winds have been variable in direction and of only moderate strength throughout the week.

The rainfall of the past week was normal or in excess in the Burma Coast and the greater part of North-East India, the West Sub-Himalayan districts, South India and the Calicut sub-division of the West Coast. The largest amounts received were in the Burma Coast, the Brahmaputra Valley and the Dinajpur, Narayangunj, Calicut and Mysore sub-divisions.

The rainfall of the period 2nd to 22nd May was normal in the Burma Wet Area, the Brahmaputra Valley, the Indo-Gangetic Plain (West), the West Satpuras and the sub-divisions of Simla, Cuttack, Indore and Bijapur. It was in excess in the Burma Coast, the Delta of Bengal, the Indo-Gangetic Plain (East), the North-West Dry Area, South India and the sub divisions of Dinajpur, Durbhanga, Ludhiana, Rauchi, Jaipur and Ahmedabad.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday, 17th May, 1902.

Madras.—There was good rain on the west coast, in the hills and in the central districts, except in North Arcot. Light to fair showers fell elsewhere. Water for irrigation is insufficient in parts of the Deccan, South Arcot, North Arcot, Salem, Madura, Tinnevely and South Canara. Ploughing and sowing continue in parts. The standing crops are generally fair, but paddy in the Cuddapah and North Arcot districts is withering in small areas. Small harvests continue with fair yield. Pasture is scarce, except in South Arcot, Salem, the South and the Nilgiris, but fodder is sufficient. The condition of the cattle is generally good. Prices are nearly stationary.

Bombay.—Heavy rain fell during the week in parts of Sindh and there was a slight fall in parts of Belgaum, Dharwar and Kanara and a very slight fall in parts of Ahmedabad, Poona, Sholapur and Satara. The standing spring crops are suffering from insufficient moisture in parts of Bijapur and Belgaum and have been damaged by unseasonable rainfall in parts of Karachi and by locusts in parts of Bijapur. The harvesting of spring crops is nearly completed in Ratnagiri and continues in parts of Kaira and Kanara. Threshing is in progress in parts of Sukkur and the Upper Sindh Frontier. The preparation of lands for autumn cultivation is almost completed in Colaba and generally continues elsewhere. Sowing for the autumn crops has commenced in parts of Hyderabad, Kaira, Ratnagiri, Kanara and Rajkot. The fodder-supply is sufficient, except in parts of Karachi, Sukkur, Nasik and the Carnatic. Agricultural stock is generally sufficient and in good condition, except in parts of Karachi and Nasik. The water-supply is becoming deficient in parts of Ahmedabad, Kaira, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Poona, Satara, the Carnatic and Baroda. Prices have risen in nine districts and are stationary elsewhere. The prices of the cheapest food-grain in pounds per rupee at head-quarters are—Ahmedabad and Mudhol, 30; Kaira and Surat, 26; Panch Mahals, 37; Ahmednagar, 29½; Poona, 27½; Khandesh and Jamkhandi, 31; Nasik, 24½; Bijapur, 32½; Belgaum, 42; Kathiawar, 26½; Palanpur, 23½; Rewakantha, 28.

The following are the daily average numbers on relief:—BRITISH DISTRICTS—On relief works, 175,778; dependants, 15,759; total on works, 191,537. In poor-houses, 1,694; on village relief, 57,776; total on gratuitous relief, 59,470; total for British Districts, 251,007. The figures for Ahmedabad, Surat, Khandesh, Belgaum and Thar and Parkar are incomplete. NATIVE STATES—On relief works, 44,638; dependants, 1,413; total on works, 46,051. In poor-houses, 4,936; on village relief, 875; total on gratuitous relief, 5,811; total for Native States, 51,862. Grand total, 302,869. The figures for Mahikantha are incomplete.

Bengal.—The rainfall during the week was fairly general and heavy at places in a few districts of Bengal proper. Excessive rain has caused some damage to the standing crops and retarded agricultural operations to some extent. Ploughing and sowing are still going on. Prospects are fair. Fodder and water are generally sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in fifteen districts, fallen in eight and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces of Agra and Oudh.—Rain is reported in half the provinces, parts of ten districts receiving about an inch. The spring operations are almost completed, and the preparation of fields for autumn sowings has begun. Prospects are good. Fodder is generally sufficient, but is scarce in parts of Almora and Agra. Prices are almost stationary.

Punjab.—Rain has fallen in all districts, except Hissar. The harvesting and threshing of spring crops continue. Some of the crops have been cleaned and housed. Autumn crops are still being sown. The sugarcane and cotton crops are being weeded in Jullundur and Sialkot. The condition and prospects of the standing irrigated crops are good. The outturn of irrigated crops is said to be average to below average and that of dry land poor. The recent rain has benefited the standing crops and will improve autumn sowings. Hail fell in parts of Mianwali and slightly damaged the extra spring crops. The cattle are generally in good condition. Fodder is said to be sufficient in all districts, except Mianwali and parts of Mooltan. The prices of wheat and gram are generally rising and those of other food-grains also show a tendency to rise. The price per rupee of the cheapest food-grains in the markets at Hissar, Rohtak and Gurgaon is as follows:—Hissar, bijhar (mixed barley and gram), 21 seers; Rohtak, barley, 20 seers and Gurgaon, barley, 20½ seers. The average number of persons in poor-houses, etc., in Hissar is as follows: poor-house inmates, 88; otherwise relieved, 2,260; total, 2,348.

North-West Frontier Province.—Seven and 22 cents of rain fell at Peshawar and Dera Ismail Khan, respectively. The outturn of the spring crops is much below average in Dera Ismail Khan. The prospects of irrigated crops, except where damaged by hail, are average and of unirrigated crops bad in Peshawar. The stocks of food-grains are sufficient, but fodder is very scarce and the cattle are in poor condition in Dera Ismail Khan. The price of wheat is high. Wheat is selling at 15½ and 14½; gram 16½ and 16 and maize 26 and 19 seers per rupee in Peshawar and Dera Ismail Khan, respectively.

Burma.—The reaping of dry weather paddy has commenced in the Upper Chindwin and continues elsewhere. Cultivation on hill sides is progressing, but sowing is retarded in Myitkyina by prolonged early rains. Ploughing for early wet-weather paddy is in operation in Myitkyina, the Ruby Mines district and Kyaukse. The gathering of tobacco continues and ploughing of early sesamum is in progress. The condition of crops on the whole is good and has been improved in Kyaukse by the recent rain. The price of paddy has increased considerably in Thongwa and slightly in eight other districts. Elsewhere it remains unchanged.

Central Provinces.—The weather has been very hot and generally cloudy. Cultivators are actively engaged in the preparation of land for autumn sowings. Fodder and water are generally ample. Prices are generally steady, except in Chhattisgarh, where the price of rice shows a slight tendency to rise. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are—wheat 17; gram, 24; rice, 15 and juar, 21½. The highest prices are—wheat, 10; gram, 13; rice, 8 and juar, 13. The numbers on relief in the Bilaspur district at the end of the week were as follows:—Relief workers—Public Works Department test-works, adults, 861; children, 139; otherwise relieved—adults, 512; children, 248; total on all forms of relief, 1,760.

Assam.—Heavy rain fell in Sylhet and Goalpara which has retarded ploughing for late rice in the former and has injured early rice and jute in the latter district. The pressing of sugarcane still continues in Darrang and Lakhimpur. The outturn is fair in the former and good in the latter district. The sowing of jute and early and late broadcast rice and planting of sugarcane and plucking and manufacture of tea are in progress. The prospects of early rice are poor in Kamrup and Nowgong, owing to the heavy rain, but fair in Upper Assam. The prospects of tea are fair, though the flush has been checked by cold and in some gardens by blight. The reaping of lowland transplanted rice is nearly finished in Sylhet. Land is being prepared for late transplanted rice. Fodder is scarce in parts of Sylhet. Prices:—Common rice—Sylhet, 15½; Silchar, 13½; Gauhati and Tezpur, 13; Sibsagar and Dibrugarh, 11 and Dhubri and Nowgong, 10 seers per rupee.

The standing crops are in good condition. The prospects of the season are good. Prices continue to be steady. The cattle are in good condition. Water and fodder are available.

Coorg.—The rainfall was 1 inch 12 cents. Ploughing for rice and for ragi continues. The prices of food-grains are stationary. Water and fodder are sufficient.

Berar.—The weather is hot. The preparation of land for the ensuing crop continues. Fodder and water are sufficient. Prices are almost stationary.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 29th May 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

Rain has fallen in Burma and North-East India on most days of the week, and some large amounts have been received at stations on the Burma Coast and in East Bengal. Akyab reported a fall of 5·96 inches and Tavoy 3·78 inches on the 28th and the week's rainfall at Barisal amounted to 8·07 inches. On the 29th moderate to heavy rain extended into the interior districts of Burma, Bhamo reporting a fall of 4·66 inches, Thayetmyo 1·12 inches and Mandalay ·94 inch. The increased rainfall in Burma during the latter part of the week was due to an unusually strong indraught of humid sea winds caused, at least in part, by excessive temperature conditions in Central Burma.

With the exception of the 26th, when moderately heavy rain fell in Malabar and parts of South India, the week has been almost rainless in the south of the Peninsula and Ceylon. On the 26th Mangalore received 2·64 inches, Cochin 2·53 inches and Calicut 2·07 inches.

The permanent hot-weather depression in North-West India intensified and advanced eastwards into the South-East Punjab and the adjacent districts of the United Provinces and gave disturbed weather with thunderstorms and hailstorms in the Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas on the 26th and 27th. Weather was also disturbed in Kashmir during the same period, but the pressure changes in that area appeared to indicate that the unsettled weather there was due to an independent disturbance in the interior ranges of the Himalayas, possibly associated with actions in Central Asia.

The rainfall of the week was normal or in excess in the Burma Coast, Burma (Wet), the Delta of Bengal, the Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas (West), South India and the sub-divisions of Bahraich, Ranchi and Bellary. The largest amounts were received in the Burma Coast (7·43 inches) and the sub-division of Calcutta (3·13 inches).

The following table shows that the rainfall of the period from 2nd to 29th May was in defect in Burma (Dry), the West Coast, the West Satpuras, the East Coast (South), Baluchistan and the sub-divisions of Bahraich, Patna, Raipur, Jubbulpore, Jhansi, Indore, Rajkot, Bijapur and Hyderabad and normal or in excess in the remaining divisions and sub-divisions.

Bills introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for making Laws and Regulations, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council, and Bills published under Rule 23.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA. LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 6th June, 1902:

NO. 7 OF 1902.

A Bill to amend the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1900.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian

Paper Currency Act, 1900; It is hereby enacted VIII of 1902 as follows:

1. This Act may be called the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1902.
Short title.

2. Section 1, sub-section (3), and section 3 of the Indian Paper Currency

Act, 1900, are hereby VIII of 1902, repealed.
Repeal of section 1 (3) and section 3, Act VIII of 1900.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Indian Paper Currency Act, 1900 (Act VIII of 1900), authorises the issue of currency notes on the security of gold held in London, and the use of the gold in the Paper Currency Reserve for the purchase of silver for coinage. The Act was limited in its operation to two years, as it was thought possible that further experience might suggest alterations in its terms. No alterations are considered necessary, and the Bill proposes to make the Act permanent by repealing sub-section (3) of section 1.

2. The opportunity has been taken also to propose the repeal of section 3 of the Act which has served its purpose.

June 4, 1902.

J. F. FINLAY.

J. M. MACPHERSON,
Secretary to the Government of India.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 5th June 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

Nor'westers and thunderstorms have given rain in Bengal throughout the week, but comparatively little rain has been received in Assam. The heaviest falls received in North-East India were 3.69 inches at Mymensing on the 4th and 3.24 inches at Cherrapunjee on the 3rd. Winds were unusually strong on the Burma Coast at the commencement of the week, indicating a strong inflow of humid sea winds into the interior, and on the 30th May light to moderately heavy showers were reported from Upper and Central Burma, Lashio receiving a fall of 2.32 inches and Kindat 1.76 inches. Pressure then rose slightly to briskly in Upper Burma and Assam and fell slightly in Tenasserim, and was in consequence very uniform in Burma and the south-east of the Bay. Winds fell off in strength and rain decreased up to the end of the week, when a steepening of the pressure gradients was accompanied by an increase in the strength of the winds and a consequent increase in the rainfall. On the 5th June Diamond Island reported a fall of 5.34 inches. Showers have fallen on the West Coast on every day of the week, but the amounts received were in most cases small. Rain was heaviest on the 1st June, when Karwar reported 1.85 inches and Colombo 1.66 inches and was most general on the 5th. Thunderstorms have given local showers in the Deccan and South India.

The rainfall of the week has been in defect over the greater part of the country. It has been normal or in excess in the Delta of Bengal, the East Coast (South) and the sub-divisions of Durbhanga, Burdwan, Bellary and Madura. The largest amounts received were 5.12 inches in the Narayanganj sub-division and 3.84 inches in the Burma Coast.

As shown in the following table, the rainfall of the period from 2nd May to 5th June was normal or in excess in the Burma Coast and Burma (Wet) and in defect in Burma (Dry). It was normal or in excess in most parts of North-East India, but was in defect in the Brahmaputra Valley and the sub-divisions of Patna and Bahraich. It was in general defect in the Indo-Gangetic Plain (West) and the central parts of the country, comprising the sub-divisions of Jhansi, Indore, Raipur and Jubbulpore and the West Satpuras. It was also in defect in Gujarat, the west and east coasts of the Peninsula and the sub-divisions of Rajapur and Hyderabad, but was normal or in excess in South India and the sub-division of Bellary. The largest percentage of defect was 97 in the sub-division of Jhansi.

Calcutta, the 13th May, 1902.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit, for the information of the Government of India, the following report on the working of the office of the Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act of 1888 during the calendar year 1901.

2. Mr. S. C. Hill was in charge of the office during the year under report.
3. The number of applications under Part I of the Act was four more than in the previous year, the number made by residents in India decreasing by one, and the number made by non-residents increasing by five. The number of applications made by natives increased by one.

Of the inventions for which protection was sought, forty-nine were connected with railways, thirty-five with electrical contrivances, fourteen with the manufacture of tea, thirteen with the pulling of punkhas, eleven with waterlifts, eleven with the manufacture of indigo, nine with bicycles and nine with the treatment of fibres.

4. At the commencement of the year eighty-nine applications of 1900 were pending, of which seven were rejected and seven abandoned, leave to file specifications having been granted in the remaining cases. As regards the applications lodged during the year under report, permission to file specifications was accorded in three hundred and forty instances, and refused in thirty-three, while eleven were treated as abandoned and one hundred and twelve remained undisposed of on the 31st December 1901, twenty-seven being in the hands of experts.

5. There was a slight increase in the number of references to paid and departmental experts, these having stood at one hundred and eighty as compared with one hundred and fifty-eight in the previous year. Fees were paid in twenty-four cases against twenty-five in 1900.

6. Four hundred and twelve specifications were filed, being two more than in 1900.

7. The number of exclusive privileges kept alive by payment of the prescribed fees rose from three hundred and ninety-nine in 1900 to four hundred and thirty-nine, while three hundred and thirty-one privileges or sixty-nine more than the previous year ceased.

8. The applications for the registration of designs numbered twenty-seven as against twenty-two in 1900. Of these, seven were registered and fifteen were refused, the remainder remaining undisposed of at the close of the year.

9. The number of references to the law officers during the year was nine or the same as in the previous year.

10. The gross revenue increased by over two thousand rupees, having stood at Rs. 45,184-1-0, as compared with Rs. 43,090-5-0 in the previous year. This sum was, as usual, mainly made up by fees collected for the continuance of privileges and the filing of specifications.

11. Thirteen models were received in the Museum during the year under report.

12. The usual statistics are given in the appended statement.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. R. COBBOLD,
H. W. WELLARD,
R. J. BARDSLEY.

5, CLIVE GHAT STREET,
Calcutta, 31st May, 1902.

5. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms—as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders—will be rejected as null and void.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

Deposits.

7. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of not less than one-hundredth, or, if the tender be for less than Five Lakhs of Rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. The deposit must be in one of the following forms: (a) a receipt for the amount from the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal, or Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an officer in charge of some Public Treasury, or (b) a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, or (c) Government Promissory Notes¹ standing in the name of, or endorsed to, the tenderer or the person making the deposit. In the case of tenders made at Post Offices under note (2) to clause 4, the deposit must be a receipt for the amount from the Post Master of the Post Office at which the tender is made.

8. (a) Deposits, not being promissory notes, will, in the case of accepted tenders, be credited proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender, and will bear interest for the purpose of clause 16 below from the date of the opening of tenders. When a tender is not accepted in full, the deposits, when they are not in the form of promissory notes, will be credited as far as possible proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of it. If any allotment-certificate is not fully taken up, the deposit credited in respect of it will be forfeited.

(b) Promissory notes deposited in respect of any accepted tender will be held until all the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender are paid up, and will, if the allotment-certificates are not fully taken up, be appropriated by the Government and cancelled.

Opening of Tenders.

9. The Governor General in Council reserves the right to declare, on or before the 2nd July, the minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted. If not so declared, the said minimum rate will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

10. Tenders will be opened publicly by the Comptroller General at the Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, at noon (Calcutta time), on Wednesday, the 9th July next, and those received under the terms of note (1) to clause 4 will be similarly opened by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore at the local time corresponding to noon Calcutta time, on the same day; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 12.

11. Tenders at rates not below the minimum rate will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate. The amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders; provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than Rs. 100: preference will however be given to small tenders, not exceeding Rs. 2,000, at the lowest accepted rate, such tenders receiving allotments in full as far as possible.

Allotment-Certificates.

12. To each tenderer (or to his agent) whose tender is accepted in whole or in part such number of allotment-certificates as may be necessary to make up the aggregate amount allotted to him will be issued by the Comptroller General² as soon as possible after the 9th July and an alphabetical list of the names of those to whom such allotment-certificates are issued will be posted for general information at the Head Offices of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, and at the Branch Offices of the Bank of Bengal at Allahabad and Lahore.

² For tenders received by the Accountant General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, and payable at those places, the Accountant General will issue the allotment-certificates.

13. If the allotment made on any tender is less than Rs. 3,000, then the whole of the allotment-certificates [after credit of the deposit under clause 8 (a)] will be made payable upon the 21st August.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments as follows:

Instalment I.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 22nd July:

Instalment II.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 21st August:

Instalment III.—The balance payable upon the 10th September:
and allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

But the whole or any part of any accepted tender may be paid at any time after receipt of the allotment-certificates.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of Rs. 100.

14. Any allotment-certificates will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of smaller denominations; provided that if any payment (beyond the deposit) is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded upon, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

15. Payment of any allotment-certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal or Madras or Bombay, or in any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. Receipts for such payments will be given by the Banks of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, or their Branches, or by the officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made, by encasement upon the relative certificate. In the case of accepted tenders which were made at Post Offices other than Post Offices in Calcutta under note (2) to clause 4, payment of allotment-certificates may also be made at the Head Post Office of tender, and the Head Post Master will give a receipt for such payment by encasement upon the relative allotment-certificate.

Issue of Promissory Notes.

16. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, promissory notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than Rs. 100), bearing interest from 31st December 1902, and he will also receive interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the 30th December 1902.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 30th June 1902 to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain promissory notes as above, bearing interest from 30th June 1902.

NEW MEMBER.

The Hon'ble MR. TUPPER took his seat as an Additional Member of Council.

INDIAN TARIFF (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY moved that the Bill further to amend the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, be taken into consideration. He said:—"It may be convenient that I should announce the rates of additional duty which will be imposed in the exercise of the powers conferred. These are :—

on German sugar, Rs. 2-13-9 per cwt. and on Austro-Hungarian sugar, Rs. 3-3-9 per cwt.

"It is not proposed for the present to impose additional duties on sugar from other countries, as it is only the bounties created by the cartels of the above-mentioned countries which are not already countervailed."

The Hon'ble MR. TURNER said :—"The Bill introduced on 23rd May last by the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Financial Department is the logical outcome of Act XIV of 1899, which was designed to countervail certain Government bounties on beet-sugar imported into India, chiefly from Austria and Germany. The Hon'ble Mr. Finlay explained very clearly when introducing the Bill the causes which have made it imperative for Your Excellency's Government to pass a short Act legalising further countervailing duties to meet the operation of what we may call disguised bounties which have come into existence under the cartel system, or what we may reasonably call a great combine of the producers of raw sugar and the refiners, of whom in Germany alone there are about 53 of the latter and 400 of the former. This system could never have been possible but for the extremely heavy surtax sanctioned by the respective Governments, so that the benefit of the cartel is really an indirect Government bounty. It is also worth noting the widespread effect this cartel system has had. It has, as we know, enabled the refiners in Austria and Germany to flood the Indian (and I believe Japanese) market with their surplus production at a rate which in India is gradually causing the ruination of sugar-factories and a great drop in the price of native-grown raw sugar. It has also enabled the refiners to sell their beet-sugar in England, India and elsewhere at a price which is 50 per cent. cheaper than the same article sold for home consumption. In other words, whereas the consumer in Germany pays 4d. per lb. for his sugar, the consumer in England and India pays half that price. The effect of this anomaly was well illustrated by Dr. Wiemer in a debate on this question in the Imperial German Parliament on 4th May last. He stated that millions of German tax-payers had to contribute to the cost of the bounties while the people were debarred from obtaining an adequate supply of one of the necessities of life; that, while in America the consumption of sugar per head of the population was 29 kilos and in England 37, it was only 13 in Germany.

"The remarks that I have made apply equally to Austria.

"Happily the time appears to have arrived when the system of bounties on sugar, direct and indirect, will come to an end. But we must remember that Conferences in connection with the abolition of sugar bounties were held in 1863 and 1864, 1872 and 1873, 1875, 1877, 1887-88; all which practically failed to fulfil the object of their inception, vis., to come to an agreement, whereby the high contracting parties should engage to take such measures as would constitute an absolute and complete guarantee that no open or disguised bounty should be granted on the manufacture or exportation of sugar. It is therefore to my mind extremely doubtful if the provisions of the Brussels Conference will be ratified by the various Governments whose representatives have subscribed to the terms of the Convention. The object of the present Bill is to provide for the interval which must elapse before the terms of the Brussels Convention can come into force, vis., 1st September 1903. But, my Lord, I think it would have been more prudent had the date of this Bill, as appears in subsection (2) of section 1, been made 31st December 1903, or had the date not been specified. I do not intend to move an amendment on this point, but would emphasise the fact that it is open to the refiners, both in Austria and Germany, to accumulate stocks (bounty-fed by Government and by the cartel) which might be imported into India after 31st August 1903, without paying this special countervailing duty. This is a possible danger against which the Government of India must carefully guard.

" I have not referred to certain other indirect bounties which are said to exist in connection with the import of beet-sugar, vis., preferential rates in the matter of sea and rail carriage. Those are points on which I am unable to speak accurately, but which require attention and on which I would ask that careful enquiry should be made."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble MR. TURNER moved that in section 8B, sub-section (1), proposed to be added, by clause 2 of the Bill, to the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, as amended by the Indian Tariff Amendment Act, 1899, the words " one moiety of " be omitted. He said :—" My Lord, I would now deal with the provision of section 8B, which provides for special import-duty on sugar in certain cases ; in other words, defines the amount of duty to be levied under the terms of this amending Bill. The Hon'ble Mr. Finlay stated when introducing the Bill that in fixing the amount of countervailing duties the formula adopted by the recent Brussels Conference had been adhered to. So that, in the first place, no notice would be taken of the six francs per 100 kilos which had been agreed to as a necessary protective import-duty in the case of refined sugar. It is difficult to understand why the representatives of Great Britain, or rather why His Majesty's Government, agreed to a deduction of six francs per 100 kilos. But, this being so, there is no reason apparently why any such allowance should be made by Your Excellency's Government before the Convention terms have been finally agreed to and become operative. I contend, my Lord, that this allowance of six francs per 100 kilos should not be made. But if it is decided that the proposed Convention terms must be adhered to up to this point, then I would ask that the intention to levy a countervailing duty equal to a moiety of the excess surtax (i.e., excess of six francs per 100 kilos) be reconsidered. I am advised that, so far as this can be measured without definite figures before us, the moiety of half the surtax in excess of six francs per 100 kilos is quite insufficient to place the indigenous sugar on a fair competing basis with the imported beet-sugar. Perhaps the Hon'ble Member will inform us on what figures he bases his calculation. In some quarters we are told that the whole surtax is 20 francs per 100 kilos, which, after deducting six francs per 100 kilos, leaves only 14 francs per 100 kilos. Dividing this by half, the result is seven francs per 100 kilos, or Rs. 1-8-8 per maund. I shall be glad to know if the Hon'ble Member has any other figures than those I have quoted. There seems some uncertainty as to the exact amount of surtax to be countervailed, and, until this is definitely and clearly ascertained, I contend that Government should reserve to itself the right of increasing the special countervailing duty as may be necessary. I therefore beg to move as an amendment that in clause 8B, sub-section (1), the words ' one moiety of ' be omitted, so that the final paragraph of the sub-section will read ' a special duty not exceeding such excess.'

" I would desire to emphasise, my Lord, the fact that those whom I now represent do not desire the introduction of a prohibitive duty on imported beet-sugar. Such a measure would be impolitic and undesirable. What we do ask for is that an equalising countervailing duty be imposed which will allow of indigenous sugar in India and foreign-made beet sugar competing on equal terms with each for the great Indian market. The refiners in India merely ask for fair play, and I am confident, my Lord, they will get it at your hands. In their name I thank you for the prompt manner in which this urgent and important matter has been dealt with.

" I may add that the views I have endeavoured to lay before you today represent those held by the Chambers of Commerce of Bengal and of Madras and of all the sugar-refiners in India. The Madras Chamber of Commerce has requested me to urge most strongly upon Your Excellency their conviction that the proposed extra duties on the basis of the Bill as it now stands are quite insufficient. I have also received telegrams from various agents and managers of sugar-refineries in India which I shall not read but simply lay upon the table."

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY said :—" I think that the Government may be fairly congratulated on the reception which this Bill has met. Their decision to impose duties to countervail the bounties created by the cartels has been universally approved and welcomed.

"The main criticisms on our proposals have been to the effect that they do not go far enough, that the duties authorised are insufficient. I am grateful to the Hon'ble Mr. Turner for having undertaken a long and trying journey in order to be present today, and to give the Council the benefit of his advice as a representative of the commercial interests of India. He has told the Council that he takes the view I have just mentioned. The Madras Chamber of Commerce has sent a telegram to the same effect, and it is right that I should read that telegram. It runs :—

'Having considered the Sugar Duties Bill, this Chamber submits that countervailing duties on lines of Brussels Convention are very inadequate. Even six francs surtax represents a protective duty of thirty pence a cwt. as compared with ten pence in America where it is designed to be highly protective. Moreover, countervailing only half the surtax in excess of six francs encourages the maintenance of the existing surtax or even adding to it. The Bill makes no reference to the freight bounties or Canal dues rebates, and this Chamber suggests that the question of countervailing these also ought to be raised. Some protection being better than none, this Chamber is gratified at the proposed Bill so far as it goes, but urges that whole surtax be countervailed in excess of two francs which is ample to protect continental countries from any legitimate competition.'

"I may first clear up a misapprehension with regard to the freight bounties and Suez Canal rebates. Under the existing Act of 1899 we have power to impose duties to countervail any subsidies, reductions of freight, or refunds of Canal dues granted by any Government which are held to constitute indirect bounties on the export of sugar. We should not hesitate to impose such duties on being satisfied that indirect bounties of this nature exist and that the rate can be calculated. But further legislation is not required for the purpose, and it was not necessary to include these items in the Bill which is now under consideration.

"The Hon'ble Mr. Turner pointed out that inconvenience and danger may arise from the operation of the clause of the Bill limiting its operation to the end of August 1903. With reference to that point, it is fairly certain that, when the date for the commencement of the Brussels Convention draws near, it will be necessary for the Government to revise the legislation concerning the countervailing duties; the nature of the revision will depend on the question whether or not the Convention has been ratified; and the Government of India, when the time comes, will be prepared to take such action as the circumstances may then require.

"With reference to my Hon'ble friend's remarks and inquiries regarding the calculations of the duties to be imposed under the Bill, I have to say that we have ascertained from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India that the surtax is 25 francs per 100 kilogrammes in Germany, and 27½ francs in Austria-Hungary. The 6 francs being deducted from those rates, francs being converted into rupees (a franc is approximately 10 annas) and kilogrammes being converted into cwt. (100 kilogrammes are approximately 2 cwt.), the rates which I have announced result.

"So far I have dealt with side or minor points. I now come to the main criticism on the Bill, namely, that in regard to our action in excluding 6 francs of the surtax and half of the excess over that sum from the amounts of the duty to be imposed.

"The Government of India has never proposed or contemplated giving to the sugar-industry of India protection against the fair and ordinary competition of foreign sugar: the protection has been restricted to that against the unfair competition of bounty-fed sugar: and the countervailing duties have been limited to the amount of the bounties. The Act of 1899 enabled us to countervail all Government bounties, direct or indirect. Now that it is known that there are other bounties, we ask for power to countervail them also. But we do not depart from the principle that protective duties in the ordinary sense of that term are undesirable: and we do not wish to impose duties higher than the bounties which are created by the cartels. The Council have heard from

Mr. Turner that he takes up the same position, and only desires that the duties shall not be lower than the bounties. The only point for discussion with him is accordingly the calculation of the amount of the cartel bounties.

"It is difficult to estimate that amount with accuracy. The highest which anyone would propose for the estimate would be the full amount of the surtax, the whole difference between the customs and excise duties of the countries where the cartels exist. But it is admitted by all who have studied the matter with care that the bounties must in actual practice fall considerably short of the full amount of the surtax. The difficulty is to determine how great the deduction from the full surtax should be. The Brussels Conference, after exhaustive inquiry and full consideration, arrived at the conclusion that the formula embodied in the Convention and followed in the Bill now under consideration was a fair estimate of the bounty created by the cartels. Apart from the high authority of the Conference, the following consideration affords fairly convincing proof that the formula which we have adopted does not err in the direction of underestimating the bounty. Other methods of calculating the amount were laid before the Conference by experts. These take into account the home and export market prices, the production, the home consumption, and the exports of sugar. From these data the total cartel bounty fund is calculated. To arrive at the rate of the bounty, one of these methods distributes the total over the exports only, but the other method distributes the total over the whole production, both the home consumption and the exports. The latter is undoubtedly the more correct. That method, on the latest data available when the calculations were made, gives the amounts of the cartel bounty as Rs. 2-7-1 per cwt. for Germany and Rs. 2-4-9 for Austria-Hungary. The rates resulting from the formula adopted in the Bill are, as I have already said, Rs. 2-13-9 and Rs. 3-3-9. These amounts are in both cases higher than the results of the most accurate scientific method known to us. On this comparison the rates we propose would appear to require justification from the charge of being too high rather than from that of being too low. To that charge a reference to the authority of the Conference will be a sufficient reply. The charge that our rates are too low is the charge with which I am at present concerned. And I hope that what I have said answers it. We could not impose higher duties on the information at present available without departing from our principle of refusing ordinary protection, and restricting our duties to the amount of the bounties to be countervailed.

"There are also distinct advantages, on broad considerations of policy, in making our legislation conform closely to the proposals of the Brussels Convention.

"For these reasons the Government of India have, after careful consideration and with reluctance, felt bound to oppose the Hon'ble Mr. Turner's amendment. We believe that the Convention formula will prove sufficient to countervail the bounties created by the cartels, and, on our present information, we should not be justified in taking powers to impose higher duties. If proof should be hereafter forthcoming that the bounties are higher, it will be open to the Government to amend the law."

The motion was put and negatived.

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY moved that the Bill be passed.

His Excellency THE PRESIDENT said :—"Before I had held my present office for three months, I was engaged in defending and in passing into law in this Council a Bill for imposing countervailing duties upon bounty-fed sugar imported into India. I remember saying that our legislation might have a far-reaching significance—as indeed has proved to be the case; but I personally defended it on the ground of its necessity for the protection of Indian industrial interests. It is on precisely the same grounds that the Government of India have introduced, and that I am now supporting, the present Bill, which, as Mr. Turner has justly said, is the logical complement of its predecessor.

"It has been clearly explained how the necessity for this fresh legislation has arisen. In 1899 we legislated against State bounties; and for that purpose our Act was adequate. But we did not legislate against private trade bounties, because their existence was not fully suspected or known. Since the Brussels Conference, we have become thoroughly acquainted with their gravity; and it is to prevent the Indian markets, during the next year and a half, before the Convention, if it be ratified, comes into operation, from being swamped with foreign sugar, which the exporters are enabled by the aid of these indirect bounties to put down in our ports at prices said to be lower even than the cost of production, that we are now legislating again.

"There are only two points upon which I desire to add to what has fallen from the Hon'ble Finance Member. I have said that what I am chiefly concerned with are the interests of the producer and the refiner in this country. Their interests are not exactly identical, though they are connected. Our means of ascertaining to what extent these classes have benefited by our former Act are not as complete or scientific as I should like, and any calculations that we may frame as to its effect upon the Indian sugar industry have necessarily been disturbed by the large importations of foreign sugar that have occurred under the cartels since 1899. The total imports of refined sugar into British India in 1898-99 were 188,000 tons. In 1899, directly after our Bill, the total fell to 147,000 tons. But in 1900 it rose to 242,000 tons, and in 1901 to 271,000 tons, of which Austria-Hungary contributed no less than $\frac{1}{10}$ ths. We did not anticipate such a rise when we were debating the matter in 1899; for, as I have said, we were not cognizant of the artificial system in Europe that rendered it possible; nor were we aware of the degree to which over-production on the Continent had been pushed. On the other hand, I certainly never said, and I am not aware that any Member of the Government said at that time, that our countervailing duties were going to extinguish foreign importation altogether. They were never meant by us to be prohibitive. What we hoped they would do would be to save from extinction our own industry in this country, and to place the Indian refiner in a position in which he could hold his own, and perhaps more than hold his own, against his foreign competitor. And I think we may fairly claim that they have produced this result. Had it not been for our duties, India must have been simply overwhelmed. Nevertheless, in spite of these immense imports, and in spite of the fall in prices which has latterly occurred, in response, as it appears, to a corresponding fall at home, and which has of course not been without its prejudicial effect upon the refining industry in India, the latter has held its head above the water. Evidence has reached me that refineries, which but for our legislation would have closed their doors, have kept them open, and that fresh refineries have started into existence. Further, the refineries have been affected by conditions entirely independent of foreign competition. Their output depends largely upon the area under sugarcane cultivation, and this depends upon the seasons. Unquestionably the conditions of drought that have prevailed during the past few years have been reflected in a scarcity of the raw material, and consequently in a diminution of supply. But the general result of my enquiry into the position of the refineries in this country in connection with the present and with past legislation is this. I do not think that they are on a level with the times. I have tried to ascertain what becomes of the imported beet from Germany and Austria. I understand that it is landed at Karachi and Bombay, and that $\frac{1}{10}$ ths of it supply an area where the growth of sugarcane is relatively insignificant, and where refineries do not exist. No countervailing duties will keep out the beet-sugar from this area so long as there is no competition to satisfy its requirements from elsewhere. It is an ordinary case of demand and supply. But I say to the refiners—When you have the whole of the rest of India at your feet, when you have the finest market in Asia at your doors, can you not profit to a greater degree by this advantage? It constitutes a bounty in itself. Am I to be told that refined sugar cannot be manufactured in India of as good a quality, and that it cannot be sold with the aid of a countervailing duty at equal or lower prices than the article that has come all the way from Hamburg or Trieste? Is it indispensable that India should import, as it has done during the past two years, from 90,000 to 100,000 tons a year of refined sugar from Mauritius, where there are no bounties at all? I feel inclined to say to the sugar refiners here—We legislated to save you from extermination in 1899. We are giving you a fresh lease of life now. Prove yourselves deserving of the favour. Reform your methods, modernise your machinery, improve the manufactured article. It would be a lasting reproach to Indian industry if, while the figures prove conclusively the enormous demand for refined sugar that exists in this country, and while the Government are doing their utmost to prevent the foreign bounty-fed article from competing unfairly with the indigenous product, the Indian refiner did not take advantage of the splendid opportunities and the almost unique market that are open to him. If he allows himself to be cut out by Trieste or even by Mauritius, there must, I think, be something deficient in his enterprise or mistaken in his methods.

“ I have tried to estimate the effect of our legislation of 1899, and the probable effect of the legislation that we are now introducing upon the native sugar production in this country. Here we must again distinguish between two very different aspects of the question. The refining or manufacturing industry in India is one thing. Its outcome is the refined sugar, which is consumed by the well-to-do classes. The producing industry is another; and its product is, for the most part, the raw or unrefined sugar, which is consumed in so many and various forms by the poor. There are, of course, points of contact between the two. As a rule, imported beet-sugar competes only with native refined sugar; but where the imported beet is capable of being sold at a very low rate, it may expel from the market even the raw material with which the native is familiar. Thus it may come about that unrestricted importation of refined sugar may prejudicially affect the local production of raw sugar. In another way there is an obvious connection between the two industries. Refineries, as I have pointed out, have to get their material from the cane plantations: and if the number of factories diminishes, the area under cultivation tends to diminish also.

“ As far as I can ascertain, the area under sugarcane has remained almost stationary during the past few years. If anything, it has been slightly decreasing. This, however, has been due neither to foreign competition, nor to any failure of the market supplied by the Indian refineries, but to the conditions of scarcity that have prevailed in so many parts of the country, and that have equally affected every class of agricultural production. But, for my own part, I cannot see why in the future the area of production should not be greatly increased. The outturn of raw sugar a year in India is about 3,000,000 tons, and the imports of refined sugar are less than 1/10th of this total. There is, therefore, at present no real or serious competition between the two classes of sugar, unless the foreign refined material is at the same time so superior and so cheap as to oust the indigenous raw material from its market. If this is to happen, I confess that I think it will be due to the fault of the indigenous article quite as much as to the privilege of the foreigner. I address therefore the owners of the native cane, as well as the refiners. I remind them that they have a market of nearly 300 million persons who, if they consume the raw article, at any rate like it good; and I invite them to realise that primitiveness of method can be pushed too far, and that there is scope even in their simple industry for enterprise and reform.

“ The only other point that I am concerned to mention is whether the extra countervailing duty that we are about to impose is adequate, or whether it will be too low. The Hon'ble Mr. Turner has given expression to doubts in this respect to which Mr. Finlay has replied. I should be reluctant to express myself with confidence in a matter so technical, and so obscure. Our object—and Mr. Turner, on behalf of the mercantile community, has not asked for more—has been so to arrange that our countervailing duty shall, as far as possible, equal the actual bounty conferred. Neither they nor we desire the imposition of a prohibitive or even a protective duty. All we are anxious for is that the cartels shall be fairly countervailed. There is no small difficulty in estimating what the exact value of these bounties is. They have been calculated both by the Convention and by other authorities. The rates that we propose are in accordance with the higher, not with the lower, of these estimates. We consulted the Secretary of State on the matter, and he strongly advised us to adhere for the present to the Convention formula, which is the basis of the rate that we have proposed. This is the explanation of our procedure. If it should be demonstrated later on that our basis of calculation has been too modest, and that our legislation is therefore failing of its effect, we can ask the Secretary of State to allow us to amend the law, and to secure to our duties the full consequences that we desire. But to justify any such step, a strong case would have to be made out.

"I hope that these remarks will convince Hon'ble Members that in this legislation we have no other object in view than the public interest; but also that, if the Government is to help the sugar industry in this country, it is possible for the latter to do a good deal more than at present to justify the help for which it pleads."

The motion was put and agreed to.

INDIAN PAPER CURRENCY BILL.

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY moved for leave to introduce a Bill to amend the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1900. He said :—"This is a simple Bill and my explanation will not be long.

"Act VIII of 1900 was enacted to remain in force only for two years, and it would expire on the 28th of this month. It is now proposed to repeal the limiting section and to make the operation of the Act permanent.

"The Act consists in substance of two parts. The first of these permits the issue of currency notes on the security of gold held in London, the gold held there forming part of the Paper Currency Reserve, which otherwise must be entirely held in India. The effect of these provisions is to afford a convenience to trade by enabling the Secretary of State to continue to sell Council Bills and Telegraphic Transfers when the demand has been large enough to exhaust the capacity of our Treasury Balances to meet the payments. These powers were first granted in January 1898 by Act II of that year. The convenience has been much appreciated in commercial circles and its permanent continuance will be approved by all.

"The second part of the substance of the Act of 1900 authorises the Government to use the gold in the Paper Currency Reserve, whether in England or in India, for the purchase of silver to be coined into rupees, the silver so purchased taking the place of the gold in the reserve, until the coinage is completed and the coined rupees in their turn then take the place of the silver bullion. The object is to facilitate and hasten the coinage of rupees when new coinage is required. If we were compelled, as we were before June 1900, to use our Treasury Balances for the purchase of silver, inconvenience and delay might be caused, as those balances might not be sufficient to enable us to set aside the amount required during the period occupied in the transit and coinage of the silver. The powers conferred by the Act were used with advantage during the heavy coinage of 1900 and 1901, and they will be equally convenient when we have again to undertake coinage. I need hardly say that it is of great importance to complete the coinage of rupees as quickly as possible, once the necessity for further coining has been recognised.

"In June 1900, though the substance of what I have called the first part of the Act was old and had stood the test of two-and-a-half years' working, the form was new, the terms of the Act of 1898 being then simplified; and both the substance and the form of the second part were new. It was accordingly decided to limit the operation of the Act to two years, in order that we might have further experience to enable us to judge whether any alterations and improvements were desirable before prolonging the Act. The provisions have been found to work well and no alterations have suggested themselves to the Government or its advisers. If the Chambers of Commerce or other representatives of banking or trade have any to suggest, we shall give their proposals careful and favourable consideration.

"Of course we cannot beforehand promise to accept the suggestions. It may be necessary to reject some, as it was in June 1900 necessary to reject the proposal made by the Bombay Chamber of Commerce to name a fixed or maximum price for the Bills or Telegraphic Transfers of the Secretary of State. I would ask the Chambers to bear in mind that the Paper Currency Reserve is not inexhaustible any more than the Treasury Balances."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY introduced the Bill.

The Hon'ble MR. FINLAY moved that the Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in English in the Gazette of India and in the local official Gazettes.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Council adjourned to Friday, the 27th June 1902.

ACCOUNTS AND FINANCE. PUBLIC DEBT.

Simla, the 9th June, 1902.

THREE-AND-A-HALF PER CENT. LOAN.

No. 3019-A.—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General in Council has resolved to borrow One Hundred and Fifty lakhs of rupees for the public service in the following manner:

2. Promissory Notes will be issued for the said amount in the Form annexed to this Notification; being the form of the notes of the Three-and-a-half Per Cent. Loan of 1900-1, of which loan the notes to be now issued will form a part. All the conditions which apply to notes of the Three-and-a-half Per Cent. Loan of 1900-1, will apply to the notes to be now issued. The interest on the notes of that loan is payable half-yearly on the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December; and the notes are not liable to discharge before the 31st day of December 1920.

Tenders.

3. Tenders for the whole or any part of the said amount of Rs. 1,50,00,000 will be received by the Comptroller General from this date to noon of Wednesday, the 9th July next. Tenders must be for sums of 100 Rupees or multiples of that sum.

4. Each tender must be addressed, in the form annexed to this Notification, to the Comptroller General, Calcutta, and enclosed in a closed cover, superscribed "Tender for the Three-and-a-half Per Cent. Loan." If the tenderer is not resident in India, he must name an agent resident in India to whom an allotment-certificate may be issued, if any part of the loan is allotted to such tenderer.

NOTE (1).—Tenders made in accordance with these instructions will also be received by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore, on account of the Comptroller General, Calcutta, on the 8th July and up to the local time corresponding to 12 o'clock in Calcutta on the 9th July; provided that—

- (a) they are delivered personally or by clerk or messenger at the Accountant General's Office (where a receipt will be given for them);
 - (b) they are made on printed forms, to be obtained at the same office or at the local Presidency Bank;
 - (c) each tender is for not less than Rs. 10,000;
 - (d) the deposit is either a promissory note or a Treasury Receipt from the local Office of the Presidency Bank, or a cheque on a local Bank in favour of the Accountant General;
 - (e) the amount of the tender is made payable either at the place of tender or in Calcutta;
- and the Accountant General will return deposits on non-accepted tenders and will issue allotment-certificates so far as the tenders are payable in Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore.

NOTE (2).—Tenders made in accordance with these instructions will also be received at all Head and Sub-Post Offices up to a date to be notified at each Post Office. The date will vary according to the distance of the Post Office from Calcutta and will in no case be later than the forenoon of the 7th July. The following conditions must be complied with:

- (a) the tenders must be delivered personally or by messenger at the Post Office, where a receipt will be given for them;
- (b) they must be made on printed forms, to be obtained at the Post Office;
- (c) each tender must be for not less than Rs. 100 and not more than Rs. 2,000;
- (d) the deposit must be a receipt for the amount (which may not exceed Rs. 40 for each tender) from the Post Master of the Post Office at which the tender is made;
- (e) the amount of the tender must be made payable either at the Head Post Office of tender (whether the tender was made at the Head Post Office or at one of its Sub-Offices) or in Calcutta. In the case, however, of a tender made at a Post Office in Calcutta, the amount of the tender must be made payable only at the Bank of Bengal.

The tenders will be transmitted by post by the Post Master to the Comptroller General so as to reach him before 11 A.M. on Wednesday, the 9th July. The Comptroller General will deal with them as if they had been made direct to him, returning deposits on non-accepted tenders through the Post Master.

5. The rate at which each tender is made must be specified in rupees or rupees and annas: a tender in which no rate is thus specified, but a subscription is offered in some other terms—as, for example, at the recorded minimum, or at some specified percentage in addition to the recorded minimum, or at the average of the accepted tenders—will be rejected as null and void.

6. The rate at which a tender is made must not contain a fraction of an anna: if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

Deposits.

7. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of not less than one-hundredth or, if the tender be for less than Five Lakhs of Rupees, then for not less than one-fiftieth part of the tender. The deposit must be in one of the following forms: (a) a receipt for the amount from the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal, or Madras, or Bombay, or one of their Branches, or from an officer in charge of some Public Treasury, or (b) a cheque drawn in favour of the Comptroller General on a Bank in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, or (c) Government Promissory Notes¹ standing in the name of, or endorsed to, the tenderer or the person making the deposit. In the case of tenders made at Post Offices under note (2) to clause 4, the deposit must be a receipt for the amount from the Post Master of the Post Office at which the tender is made.

8. (a) Deposits, not being promissory notes, will, in the case of accepted tenders, be credited proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender, and will bear interest for the purpose of clause 16 below from the date of the opening of tenders. When a tender is not accepted in full, the deposits, when they are not in the form of promissory notes, will be credited as far as possible proportionately in part payment of the allotment-certificates issued in respect of it. If any allotment-certificate is not fully taken up, the deposit credited in respect of it will be forfeited.

(b) Promissory notes deposited in respect of any accepted tender will be held until all the allotment-certificates issued in respect of the tender are paid up, and will, if the allotment-certificates are not fully taken up, be appropriated by the Government and cancelled.

Opening of Tenders.

9. The Governor General in Council reserves the right to declare, on or before the 2nd July, the minimum rate at which tenders will be accepted. If not so declared, the said minimum rate will be recorded under the signature of the Comptroller General, and, before the tenders are opened, placed upon the table in a sealed envelope, but will not be declared unless some tender is rejected only because it is below the recorded minimum.

10. Tenders will be opened publicly by the Comptroller General at the Treasury Buildings, Calcutta, at noon (Calcutta time), on Wednesday, the 9th July next, and those received under the terms of note (1) to clause 4 will be similarly opened by the Accountants General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, and Lahore at the local time corresponding to noon Calcutta time, on the same day; but the contents of the tenders will not be disclosed otherwise than as provided in clause 12.

11. Tenders at rates not below the minimum rate will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest rate. The amount allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate in proportion, as nearly as may be found convenient, to the amounts of their tenders; provided that no allotment will be issued if the amount distributable on any tender is less than Rs. 100: preference will however be given to small tenders, not exceeding Rs. 2,000, at the lowest accepted rate, such tenders receiving allotments in full as far as possible.

Allotment-Certificates.

12. To each tenderer (or to his agent) whose tender is accepted in whole or in part such number of allotment-certificates as may be necessary to make up the aggregate amount allotted to him will be issued by the Comptroller General¹ as soon as possible after the 9th July and an alphabetical list of the names of those to whom such allotment-certificates are issued will be posted for general information at the Head Offices of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, and at the Branch Offices of the Bank of Bengal at Allahabad and Lahore.

¹ For tenders received by the Accountant General at Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, or Lahore, and payable at those places, the Accountant General will issue the allotment-certificates.

13. If the allotment made on any tender is less than Rs. 3,000, then the whole of the allotment-certificates [after credit of the deposit under clause 8 (a)] will be made payable upon the 21st August.

Otherwise the whole amount of each allotment will be divided into three instalments as follows:

Instalment I.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent. payable upon the 22nd July:

Instalment II.—As near as convenient to 35 per cent., but not exceeding 35 per cent., payable upon the 21st August:

Instalment III.—The balance payable upon the 10th September:

and allotment-certificates will be issued for each instalment separately.

But the whole or any part of any accepted tender may be paid at any time after receipt of the allotment-certificates.

The words "as near as convenient" refer to the necessity for making each instalment an exact multiple of Rs. 100.

14. Any allotment-certificates will, on application to the Comptroller General, be exchanged for an equivalent amount of allotment-certificates of smaller denominations; provided that if any payment (beyond the deposit) is recorded upon the cancelled certificate, it can be taken against, and recorded upon, only one of the certificates issued in exchange.

15. Payment of any allotment-certificate may be made to the account of the Government in the Head Office of the Bank of Bengal or Madras or Bombay, or in any Branch of these Banks, or into any Public Treasury or Treasuries in India which may be named in the tender in respect of which it was issued. Receipts for such payments will be given by the Banks of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, or their Branches, or by the officers in charge of the Government Treasuries at which payment is made, by encasement upon the relative certificate. In the case of accepted tenders which were made at Post Offices other than Post Offices in Calcutta under note (2) to clause 4, payment of allotment-certificates may also be made at the Head Post Office of tender, and the Head Post Master will give a receipt for such payment by encasement upon the relative allotment certificate.

Issue of Promissory Notes.

16. (a) When any allotment-certificate is fully paid up, the holder will, on presenting it duly receipted at the place where it was paid, obtain from the Public Debt Office, Calcutta, promissory notes of such values as he may desire (each note being in even hundreds and not less than Rs. 100), bearing interest from 31st December 1902, and he will also receive interest at 3½ per cent. per annum from the dates on which he may have made payment till the 30th December 1902.

(b) Or he may, at his option, by paying interest at the said rate from 30th June 1902 to the dates on which he may have made payment, obtain promissory notes as above, bearing interest from 30th June 1902.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 12th June 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The most important feature in the meteorology of the past week was the burst of the monsoon on the West Coast. The advance of monsoon winds was, as is usually the case, preceded by the appearance of an area of low pressure in the Arabian Sea which gradually increased in intensity during the week. Pressure was in slight to moderate defect in the Konkan and Gujarat on the 9th and relatively to normal diminished daily till on the 12th the deficiency amounted to a quarter of an inch at Veraval. On the 10th June the disturbance in the Arabian Sea was central about 100 miles west of Bombay. It then commenced advancing slowly in a north-westerly direction and next day was central about 150 miles west of Veraval. Although the disturbance did not develop into a storm, it gave very disturbed weather in the north-east of the Arabian Sea and very strong winds at Bombay. During the week moderate to heavy rain fell on the West Coast, chiefly in the Konkan. In South Malabar and at Colombo winds have been light and irregular and hence very little rain has been received. Pressure has been low and unusually uniform over the north of the Bay and winds light and irregular on the Burma, Bengal, Orissa and Ganjam Coasts. Rainfall has in consequence been comparatively light in Burma and North-East India; though showers, more or less local in character, have been received in both areas on every day of the week. Extensions of easterly winds up the Gangetic Plain into the Punjab have given showers in the United Provinces and the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas. Irregular pressure changes due to hot weather actions have given duststorms, in some instances accompanied with light rain, in Rajputana and the West and Central Punjab. Feeble monsoon influences have occasioned light rain in the Deccan and the Central Provinces.

The rainfall of the week has been normal or in excess in Burma and the greater number of divisions in Northern India and in defect over the greater part of the Peninsula. It has, however, been in large excess in the Bombay sub-division of the West Coast and normal in the Calicut sub-division. The heaviest rain received during the week was in the sub-divisions of Bombay (16.92 inches) and Calicut (5.77 inches) and in the Burma Coast (5.65 inches).

The rainfall of the period from the 2nd May to the 12th June was in defect in the Burma Dry Area and normal in other parts of Burma. In Northern India it was generally equal to, or in excess of, the normal except in the Brahmaputra Valley, Gujarat and the sub-divisions of Bahraich, Jhansi and Indore. In the Peninsula it has been in defect in all divisions except South India and the sub-divisions of Bombay and Bellary. The largest percentage of defect occurred in Gujarat.

Customs Circular No. IX of 1902.

Ordered, that the circular be published for general information in the Supplement to the Gazette of India.

E. N. BAKER,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

Customs Circular No. IX of 1902.

From—The Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, No. 845-S. R., dated the 11th February 1902,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Revenue Department.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 75, dated the 6th January 1902, on the subject of the marking of worsted woollen yarns imported from the Continent of Europe. The Government of India have asked the Secretary of State to ascertain the views of English spinners on the question; and in the meantime I am to say that the Continental description of count may be allowed for the present in the case of both woollen and silk yarns, provided the manufacturers follow the metric system in full, qualifying the marks with the words "Continental Count" or "Metric System of Count," and give the country of origin of the yarns.

From—The Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, No. 3007-S. R., dated the 7th June 1902,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Revenue Department.

In continuation of the letter from this Department No. 845-S. R., dated the 11th February 1902, I am directed to inform you that the Association of Chambers of Commerce of the United Kingdom, which was consulted by the Secretary of State for India, approves the application of the metric system of marking to both silk and woollen yarns in India, provided that the manufacturers follow the metric system in full, qualifying the marks with the words "Continental Count" or "Metric System of Count," and give the country of origin of the yarns; and provided also that yarns marked in accordance with the British system are admitted freely as hitherto.

2. The provisional orders conveyed in the letter above cited may now be considered as final.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 19th June 1902, based on the India Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The Arabian Sea monsoon current continued to give moderately heavy rain on the West Coast during the first half of the week and rain was fairly general, though light, in the Deccan on the 14th and 16th. The low pressure area in the Arabian Sea developed into a storm and advanced in a westerly direction to a position to the south-west of Kurrachee, and as far as can be judged from the coast observations remained almost unchanged in position till the 16th, when it apparently recurved slightly to the north and advanced to the Mckran Coast about 100 miles west of Kurrachee. The barometer rose very rapidly at Kurrachee during the next twenty-four hours and the storm probably passed away to the west. As the storm receded from the Peninsula rain gradually fell off on the West Coast and on the 16th decreased markedly, only one station reporting a fall of more than an inch, while the Deccan was practically rainless. The decrease continued on the 17th and 18th, and on the 19th only a few very light showers were reported from the West Coast, the heaviest being a fall of only .26 inch at Mercara. The storm in the Arabian Sea gave fair rain in Sind and Baluchistan and light showers in Gujarat.

The Bay current gave rain in Burma, Assam and Bengal, but the distribution of pressure in Northern India being unfavourable for easterly winds, rain did not extend up the Gangetic Plain. A small storm which formed at the head of the Bay at the beginning of the week crossed the coast near Balasore and passed into East Bengal, giving rain to the districts in its track. Pressure continued low in North-East Bengal throughout the week and heavy rain was received in Assam and East and North Bengal. Cherra Poonjee received 51.35 inches during the week and Mymensingh 15.57 inches. In the West Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas a few thunderstorms, due probably to unsettled conditions in the interior ranges of the Himalayas, gave light to moderate rain at several hill stations.

The rainfall of the week was largely above normal in the Brahmaputra Valley and the sub-division of Narayanganj and equal to or above normal in the Burma Wet Area, the North-West Dry Area, Baluchistan and the sub-divisions of Dinajpur, Burdwan, Bombay, Bellary, Bijapur and Madura.

The last five columns of the following table give the rainfall data for the period from the 2nd May to the 19th June. They show that rainfall has been in defect in the Satpuras, the East Coast, the Central India Plateau, the greater part of the Deccan and Gujarat. It has been in excess in the Bombay sub-division of the West Coast and in defect in the Calicut sub-division. Rain has been normal or in excess in most divisions of Burma, North-East India and North-West India, a deficiency being shown, however, in the Burma Dry Area, and in the sub-divisions of Bahraich, Patna and Cawnpore. The largest actual excess occurs in the sub-division of Narayanganj, where it amounted to 10.04 inches.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday, 14th June, 1902.

Madras.—The rainfall was good in Ganjam, the west coast and the Nilgiris. No rain fell in South Arcot, Salem and Trichinopoly, but light to fair rain fell elsewhere. Water for irrigation is sufficient, except in parts of the Deccan, Carnatic, North Arcot, Salem and Madura. Ploughing, sowing and transplanting continue in parts. The condition of standing crops is generally fair, but they are withering in parts of North Arcot. Harvests on small areas continue with moderate yield. Pasture is scanty, except in Vizagapatam, South Arcot, Central and South Malabar and the Nilgiris, but fodder is sufficient. The condition of cattle is generally good. Prices are stationary, except in the Circars and parts of the Deccan, where they have slightly risen.

Bombay.—Heavy rain fell during the week in parts of Karachi, Colaba, Ratnagiri and Kanara. Good rain has also fallen in parts of Thana, Satara, Belgaum and Dharwar. The rainfall was moderate in parts of Khandesh, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Poona and Sholapur and slight in parts of Hyderabad, Gujarat, Rajkot, Wadhwan, Baroda and Bijapur. The standing crops have been slightly damaged by locusts in parts of Sholapur. The harvesting of spring crops is almost completed in Sukkur, the Upper Sindh Frontier and Ahmedabad and continues in parts of Thar and Parkar and Kaira. Preparation of lands for autumn cultivation is progressing everywhere. Sowing has been completed in Colaba and continues in parts of other districts of the Konkan and in parts of Karachi, Larkana, Sukkur, Hyderabad, Surat, Ahmednagar, Poona, Belgaum and Dharwar. The fodder-supply is generally sufficient, except in parts of Karachi, Hyderabad, the Upper Sindh Frontier, Broach, Nasik and Bijapur. Agricultural stock is in good condition, except in parts of Bijapur, and is sufficient, except in parts of Kaira, Nasik, Bijapur and Baroda. The water-supply is becoming deficient in parts of Thar and Parkar, Ahmedabad, Kaira, Surat, Nasik, Satara, Dharwar and Baroda. Prices have fallen in three districts, risen in one district and are stationary elsewhere. The prices of the cheapest food-grain in pounds per rupee at head-quarters are—Nasik, 24½; Broach, 25; Mahikantha, 25½; Rewakantha, 25½; Sangli, 26½; Kaira and Kathiawar, 26; Jamkhandi, 27; Poona 27½; Surat, Khandesh and Mudhol, 28; Ahmednagar, 29½; Ahmedabad, 30; Bijapur, 30½; Panch Mahals, 32; Sholapur, 37; Belgaum, 42.

The daily average numbers on relief were as follows :—BRITISH DISTRICTS—On relief works, 172,248; dependants, 20,789; total on works, 193,037. In poor-houses, 2,111; on village relief, 65,760; total on gratuitous relief, 67,871; total British Districts, 260,908. In poor-houses, 6,588; on village relief, 1,399; total on gratuitous relief, 7,987; total Native States, 49,454. Grand total, 310,362. The figures for Palanpur, Miraj Junior and Kurrundwad Senior are incomplete.

Bengal.—There was general but unequally distributed rain during the week. Heavy showers fell in East Bengal and the prospects of crops are said to be gloomy in Backergunge, owing to excessive rainfall. Ploughing and sowing are still in progress. The transplantation of winter rice has commenced in places and the weeding of jute and early rice continues. Sugarcane is generally promising. Fodder and water are sufficient, except at places in Palamau where they are said to be insufficient. Water is also reported to be scarce in Hazaribagh. The price of common rice has risen in fifteen districts, has fallen in eleven and is stationary in the rest.

United Provinces of Agra and Oudh.—Rain has been almost general, though unevenly distributed. Hail is reported to have fallen in Moradabad and Cawnpore, causing some injury in the former district. Ploughing and sowing for autumn crops are in progress and the plantation of rice has commenced in places. Sugarcane has been damaged in Azamgarh and Benares. Fodder continues scarce in Agra and parts of Mirzapur and Jalaun. Prices are stationary.

Punjab.—Rain has fallen all over the province. The harvesting of spring crops is nearly completed. Wheat is still being housed in Mooltan. Sugarcane and cotton crops are being weeded in some districts. Harvesting of extra spring crops continues. Ploughings and sowings of other autumn crops continue in some districts. More rain is urgently wanted for further sowings in Gujrat. The condition and prospects of standing crops are reported to be good to average. They have been benefited by the recent rain. The produce of extra spring crops is said to be average in Mianwali. Cotton plants have been slightly damaged by hot winds in parts of Gurgaon. The cattle are generally in good condition, except in Mianwali; they are also reported to be suffering from over-work in Sialkot. Fodder is said to be sufficient in all districts, except in Mianwali, Rawalpindi and in parts of Gurgaon, Mooltan and Shahpur. Prices of wheat and gram are generally rising, but in Rawalpindi the price of wheat is falling. The prices of other food-grains are unsettled. The price per rupee of the cheapest food-grain in the markets of Hissar, Rohtak and Gurgaon is as follows:—Hissar, bijhar (mixed barley and gram), 20 seers; Rohtak, barley, 20 seers; Gurgaon, barley, 17 to 23 seers. The average number of persons in poor-houses, etc., is as follows:—poor-house inmates, 80; otherwise relieved, 2,280; total, 2,360.

North-West Frontier Province.—There was no rain during the week, and sowings except on canal lands, have been suspended. The condition of extra spring crops is average. The stock of food-grains is sufficient, but fodder is scarce in Dera Ismail Khan. The condition of cattle is good in Peshawar. The water-supply in wells and from hill streams has been reduced by drought and extreme heat. Water even for drinking is in many places difficult to obtain. Prices are steady.

Burma.—Ploughing is now general in Lower Burma. In Upper Burma reaping of dry-weather paddy continues in places and early wet-weather paddy has been reaped in Magwe. Ploughing and sowing are in progress elsewhere. Cultivation of paddy on hill sides is progressing, and the sowing of early sessamum cotton and maize continues. The rainfall has been seasonable. Crops generally promise well. The price of paddy has risen considerably in Tharrawaddy and fallen similarly in Thayetmyo. Slight variations in prices occur in five other districts, but elsewhere there is no change.

Central Provinces.—The weather has been generally hot and cloudy. Rain has fallen in all districts, except Nimar and Chanda. The fall approximated to $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches in the Terpra tahsil of the Bhandara district, 1 inch in Damoh and Mandla, and $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch in Sambalpur. Elsewhere the fall was light. The preparation of land for autumn sowings continues. Sowings have commenced in places, but are generally retarded for want of sufficient rain. The delay in the monsoons is causing apprehension in Damoh. Insufficiency of fodder and water is reported from parts of the Nagpur and Raipur districts and of water from parts of Nimar. Prices have fluctuated slightly. The lowest prices in seers per rupee are—wheat, 17; gram, 22; rice, 15 and juar, 21 $\frac{1}{2}$. The highest prices are—wheat, 9 $\frac{1}{2}$; gram, 12; rice, 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ and juar, 12. J. P. HEWETT,

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 a.m. on Thursday, the 26th June 1902, based on the Indian Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The Bay monsoon current has given very little rain during the week except in the Burma Coast districts and Assam. Light rain was fairly general over Bengal on the 22nd, but on other days of the week, it was very local in character in that province. Cherrapoonjee reported 23·01 inches on the 21st, and 11·52 inches on the 23rd, and during the week received a total of 60·97 inches. Conditions were suspicious in the north of the Bay on the 24th, and on the 25th a very feeble and ill-defined depression crossed the Orissa Coast into the north-east of the Peninsula, but it gave no rain of any importance.

The Arabian Sea monsoon current has been very feeble and has given only light rain on the West Coast. The most important rain received during the week in Western India was that received in Rajputana and Upper India. At the close of the previous week humid winds from the Arabian Sea were extending through Rajputana into the Punjab. On the 20th a depression appeared over the South-East Punjab and Rohilkhand and light to moderate rain was general in Rajputana, the hills and plains of the Punjab and the adjacent districts of the United Provinces. Showers continued in the Punjab and Rajputana up to the end of the week, but on the 26th had almost ceased in the Punjab, the only fall reported being one of ·61 inch at Mooltan. On the 26th rain extended into Sind, and Hyderabad reported a fall of 1·45 inches.

The rainfall of the week has been normal in the Burma Coast and the Simla sub-division; in excess in the North-West Dry Area, South India, the East Coast (South), the Brahmaputra Valley, and the sub-divisions of Ludhiana, Lahore and Jaipur; and in defect elsewhere.

The last five columns of the following table giving the rainfall data for the period from the 2nd May to the 26th June, show that the rainfall of the period was normal or in excess in the Burma Coast, Burma (Wet), the Delta of Bengal, the Brahmaputra Valley, the Himalayas and Sub-Himalayas (West), the North-West Dry Area, Baluchistan, South India and the sub-divisions of Dinajpur, Burdwan, Lahore, Jaipur, Bombay and Bellary. The largest percentage of defect in the remaining divisions occurred in the central parts of the country and in Gujarat.

Customs Circular No. XI of 1902.

From—The Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, No. 3358-S.R., dated the 18th June 1902,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Revenue Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 431, dated 5th May 1902, regarding the levy of customs duty on flint pebbles. The question has arisen in connection with the importation by * * * * of 98 casks of flint pebbles for use as rolling ballast in their tube mills for the manufacture of cement. The Board of Revenue considers that the Customs-Collector has correctly levied duty on these pebbles, but, as the practice appears to be different in Calcutta, you refer the case for a ruling by the Government of India.

2. In reply I am to say that the Government of India agree with the Board of Revenue in thinking that the duty has been correctly levied in the case under consideration. They consider that flint pebbles imported for the purpose indicated cannot be held to be component parts of a cement mill, but should rather be regarded as consumable stores used in working the mill. Duty should, therefore, be levied on them at five per cent. ad valorem, whether they are imported separately or along with the machinery of a mill.

Rules for Admission.

For admission to the Higher Agricultural Class, an applicant must have one of the following qualifications:—

- (i) He must have passed the F. E. examination of the Calcutta University and be under 23 years of age, but no student will be allowed to join the Agricultural class after the expiration of five years from admission into the Engineering College.
- (ii) He must have passed the B. A examination of the Calcutta University by the B course, or possess other sufficient educational qualifications; be under 23 years of age, and, in addition, have received a nomination from the Bengal Government.
- (iii) He must have had a general education qualifying him to follow the instruction in the Higher Agricultural Class and must also receive a nomination from Government for admission as a special student. To be eligible for a nomination under this rule, a candidate must either have landed property of his own, or be recommended by some influential landholder who desires to train him to take part in the management of his estate, or he must otherwise satisfy Government that he intends to make practical use of his agricultural training. Students entering under this rule will be termed Special Agricultural Students. They will not be subject to any maximum limit of age, but will not be entitled to the privileges conferred on passed students under rules 12 and 13, even though they should obtain fully-signed diplomas in due course after passing the necessary examinations.

Every candidate for admission to this Department must apply in writing to the Principal not later than the 14th July. The form of application for a nomination, which must be addressed to the Principal, is given in Appendix B. In the event of the form not being properly filled up, and accompanied by the necessary certificates, no notice will be taken of the application.

The number to be nominated will depend on the accommodation available.

Every applicant, not already a student of the College, must undergo a medical examination by the College Surgeon before admission to this Department. If this officer's report is unsatisfactory, the applicant will not be admitted.

Course of Instruction

The course of instruction in the Higher Agricultural class will extend over two academic years.

Scholarships.

Senior scholarships awarded in the Engineer Department are tenable in the Agricultural Department.

One graduate scholarship of Rs 30 a month, tenable for one year, will be awarded on the result of the examination held at the end of the first academic year.

Appointments.

Two appointments annually are assigned to students holding a fully-signed diploma: one in the Provincial Executive Service and one in the Subordinate Executive Service. The right of selection for these appointments will rest with Government, and the students who gained the highest marks at the examination for diplomas will not necessarily be selected.

Other holders of fully-signed agricultural diplomas, who wish to compete at the examination for admission to the Provincial, Subordinate Executive, and Opium Services, may submit their names through the Principal to Government for nominations. These applications for nominations will be considered, provided the applicants appear to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to be otherwise suitable for admission to these services.

Entrance and Tuition Fees.

Each student in the Higher Agricultural Department will be required to pay an admission fee of Rs 10, except such students as may wish to join after passing this year's F. E. examination.

For the present no tuition fees will be charged to students in the Agricultural Department, except in the case of those joining as special students under rule 3 (iii). The tuition fees for these students will be Rs 8 a month.

Further particulars may be obtained free on application to the Principal.
